

Interviewer [00:00:05]: So magandang hapon po sa inyo. Ako po si [Name], isa akong researcher para sa project ng ManyQuali na may layuning, pag-aralan ang kalidad ng relation. So isinasagawa po ang research na ko sa limang bansa, U.S., Brazil, France, Netherlands, and dito po sa Pilipinas. So maari po tumagal ang interview natin ng 30 minutes to one hour, depende po sa mga ishashare niyo po. So huwag po kaya mahiya kung kailangan nyo po ng break. So i-rerecord po namin ang interview na ito pero hindi po namin ito ibabahagi kanino man na walang kinalaman sa project. Ito ay para lang matandaan po namin yung sa sasabihin. So bago pa tayo mag-start, mayroon po ba kayong question?

Speaker: Wala naman, ay hindi ko lang alam ko ano yung. May, yung wifi ko, it's okay naman?

Interviewer [00:01:05]: Naglalag eh.

Speaker: Ah naglalag po ako.

Interviewer: Wait, hindi ko sure kung sure umm. Pero anyway, siya wait, we can stop naman diba pag medyo malabo na?

Speaker: Opo.

Interviewer: Ayun po, pwede ko po bang itanong kung ilang taon na po kayo?

Speaker: [46-50].

Interviewer: Okay [46-50]. So gaano katagal na po kayo nang asawa niyo po?

Speaker: [16-20]? [16-20]?

Interviewer: [16-20] years together po?

Speaker[00:02:05]: Um... [Year]. Yah.

Interviewer: Nag-compute po ano, [16-20] years. Meron po ba kayong anak?

Speaker: Yes, we have [1-5] daughters.

Interviewer: So paano niyo po tinatawag yung husband niyo? Ano pong tawagan nyo?

Speaker: Syempre pag may ibang tao, or serious I call him by his name. Pero I call him "[Nickname]" or "[Nickname]" or "[Nickname]".

Interviewer: Pwede po ba namin malaman ilang po kayong magkasama sa bahay?

Speaker: [00:03:05] Right now, since pandemic, so yung [1-5] daughters, tapos may mother-in-law lumipat. And then... and then [1-5]... [1-5] [occupation].

Interviewer: Okay po. So ano po yung...Pwede po ba namin din malaman ano po yung kasalukuyan niyong trabaho? O ano po ang mga pangunahing pinagkukunan niyo ng gastusin?

Speaker: Um... Namin mag-asawa? Actually, we have a [occupation] kaming mag-asawa. Nag [occupation] siya. Nung nagkasal kami, nagpina...nag-start kami ng ganon. Since then, ayun, hanggang ayun. Yun parin yung pinagkukunan namin. But I work from home. So I don't go to the office.

Interviewer: [00:04:05] Opo. Ayun po. So next question po. Pwede niyo po may ikwento sa amin ng love story ninyo?

[Portion Redacted]

Interviewer: [Partner's Name], ayan. So, next question naman po, kamusta naman po ang kalidad ng relasyon niya ni [Partner's Name], kung ikukumpara niya po ito sa mga kaibigan niya po na may partner din?

Speaker: [00:09:00] Mm-hmm. Yung, ano namin ikukumpara ko. Nung pandemic no, nag-go through kami ng counseling nung nag-start yung ano nang ano kami ng counseling, first time ever. Kasi nag iba yung ano. He's a busy man, unlike my friends, yung mga asawa nila but they do have time. They have 8 to 5 jobs, so nasa bahay na siya. Yung husband ko kasi is a very hardworking man so I hardly get to see him. Hindi naman hardly get to see him pero parang hindi lang ako sanya. Maybe because sa family ko medyo family-oriented talaga kami. We really spend time as a family. So I'd say dun lang na iiba kasi sobra siyang hardworking nga. Yun yung ano ng counseling before na walang time.

Interviewer: Opo.

Speaker: May times na on the rocks di ba? Together pa naman kami.

Interviewer: Kamusta po yun yung counseling niyo kung katagal po siya, gaano po siya tumagal?

Speaker [00:11:00]: Ang ano nun, kasi yung first time ko to approach a [occupation] ng [Year], yun yung pandemic, right? So first time ko to approach a [occupation], as an individual dapat, tapos biglang the problem is sa marriage, tapos sabi nga, so nag-invite din siya if my husband is willing also to cooperate doon sa ano, ay okay naman siya. Nung una syempre ha bakit ganyan? Pero naging okay naman siya. Actually, tumagal ako hanggang ano lang, few months lang siya tumuloy siya. Actually until years after ko namin, ano, siya na mag-message, ako nga hindi na eh mag-stop na ako, siya and tumuloy siya.

Interviewer [00:12:00]: Kamusta po yung naging ano niyo dun sa counseling? Kung okay lang po sa inyo pa-share, ano po yung naging challenges niyo na na-discuss and yung mga na-resolve po?

Speaker: So, ayun, okay, you hear me.

Interviewer: Actually hindi ko rin po alam kung wifi ko.

Speaker [00:13:00]: Pero diba nagchochoppy siya? Try ko din po magpalit ng wifi. Mag-improve ba?

Interviewer: Kung okay lang po sa inyo, kamusta po yung naging ano po ninyo, counseling po, marriage counseling?

Speaker [00:14:00]: Sa akin, at first, okay siya, nakatulong siya sa akin. As an individual. Sa akin tapos kasi at that time, so the [occupation] asked me what's my reason diba for approaching niya them, why I wanted the counseling. Sabi ko, hindi ko alam kung dahil nag-iba lang yung setup dito sa house na nag ano dahil dumating mga mother in law ko, diba hindi naman ako sanay sa ganung setup or, or gusto pa ba ng asawa ko sa akin yung mga ganun. Hindi ko alam eh. So yun yung reason ko tapos na ano naman namin yung back.

[00:15:00]: Basta pinagawan ako lang timeline, since birth, yung mga important events in my life niyan. So dun ko lang narealize na, okay ganon, ito pala, ito pala ako, parang na-enlighten ako sa ganun. Pero ako as an individual, okay siya, parang nakilala ko, ito pala ako, parang ganun. Pero as a couple, nakatulong siya at first, pero hindi rin nagtagal, parang feeling ko dahil kung hindi ka talaga diba, hindi mo gagawin yung homework mo, hindi niyo gagawin yung ano together, wala rin useless. Umm. Hindi kasi naging, nagkaroon ako ng time na parang ay, hindi ako na naniwala sa counseling kasi parang you're not there at that time na nag-aaway kami.

Speaker [00:16:05]: Tapos hindi ako masyadong naging ano ba tawag dun. Hindi naman siya hindi nag-relief, pero parang panong, parang panong, parang yung malala, pano yung counselor malalaman kung ano nangyari at that time. Yung husband ko he, may tendency siya dati na to exaggerate things, pag nagkwekwento siya. So parang nawalan ako na gana, pero yun tumuloy naman siya. As a couple parang feeling hindi ko hindi masyadong natulungan. Parang nung sa as a couple hindi masyadong na ganon, feeling ko lang, or I expected more lang, more changes, more ano, siguro ganun yung expectations ko lang.

Speaker [00:17:03]: So ako ha, yun di ko alam, like now, if you're gonna ask me should I go, siguro, oo pero may mga ano ako na, yah maybe it won't work yung mga ganun.

Interviewer: Parang nagdoubt po kayo din sa therapeutic process.

Speaker: Kasi yung last, last na sabi pala, kaya kami nagstop pala, pinapaano, yun sa [occupation], may test, may nirefer na siya, sa [occupation], just may specific test na pinapasagot. I forgot actually siya mas siya may alam kasi siya yung kinakausap at that time. May test kami kailangan, or siya lang ba ang na may kailangan na test, parang ganun na hindi namin na nagawa na--

Speaker [00:18:19]: Sorry nawala ka yata. Ayan, ayan.

Interviewer: Sorry, sorry talaga sa wifi ko. So ano naman if ever po yung mga naging concerns niyo po in therapy, eventually po ba na address nyo din sa?

Speaker: Hmm, like I said parang hindi masyado, hindi masyado eh. Maybe because nag stop kami? Hindi ko kasi ma-explain, actually nahihirapan ako pag nag ano sa counseling.

Speaker [00:19:05]: Kasi actually because yung at that time na nangyayari yun. Iba pag kinukwento mo na eh, di ba? So hindi ko maexplain masyado na I feel na parang, hindi ganito yun eh.

Interviewer: So counseling aside po, eventually po ba, where you able to resolve kung ano po yung mga naging marital issues niyo po during the pandemic?

Speaker [00:20:00]: Actually, I'd say, siyempre may mga times na parang, you wanna give up again diba. Pero right now, dahil ako I focus on more on myself. Kumbaga, through readings yung kung ano mga inspirational, whatever na nababasa ako and realizations sa mga napapanood o lahat na lang yun. I will not, of course may expectations kasi may commitment kaming dalawa. Ako dapat ang mag-adapt sa people around me. And I will not, parang hindi ko na icocontrol how other people are. I used to, parang dapat ikaw maganyan. So when I learned that, nag-improve sa sarili ko na parang ako, I should learn how to adapt diba to the people around me and not expect them to do yung kung paano ko sila gustong, how I would want to control them yung ganon. So siguro doon, ito, recently lang yan, yung mga realizations na yan. Dun lang nag-improve, I think.

Interviewer: Parang nagkaroon po kaya ng parang acceptance diba doon sa mga, before siguro na ideal figure niya.

Speaker: Opo.

Interviewer: So masasabi niyo po--

Speaker: Actually, yeah, more acceptance. Sorry po, like, ayun.

Interviewer: So masasabi niyo yung relationship ni [Partner's Name] sa mga kaibigan niyo po, would you say you have a better relationship? Or parang you need more work on?

Speaker [00:22:00]: Sa mga friends ko, well, half na friends ko hiwalay. So I'd say, siguro better, better. May mas better. Siguro yung ano lang, yung tama lang? Hindi kami yung okay na okay. Siguro hanging kami yung ganoon.

Interviewer: Based on what you said po, parang, parang you're actively working on it po, eh, no?

Speaker: Yes, actually. It's an ongoing process na inaano namin.

Interviewer: So, pwede ko din po bang tanungin, kung ilan po yung mga naging karelasyon niya po dati?

Speaker [00:23:00]: Wait, [1-5], [1-5].

Interviewer: [1-5] po kasama si [Partner's Name], o siya po yung pangalawa?

Speaker: Ah, bali, ano. Pagkasama siya, actually [1-5]. Wait [1-5]. [1-5] pa lang po. Kinalimutan yun na po yung iba. Kinalimutan pa hahahaha.

Interviewer: Next question. So, kamusta po ang kalidad ng relasyon niya po ni [Partner's Name], kung ikukumpara niya po ito sa mga naging ex niya po dati?

Speaker [00:24:15]: Hindi ba ito pa yung dati? Actually, yung, ano, iba eh, iba yung sa kanya, hindi ko alam kung cultural differences. He's [Nationality] because he's pure. I'm pure [Nationality], he's pure [Nationality]. So, hindi tapos yung mga naging karelasyon ko dati, they're pure [Nationality]. Malaking difference eh. So, pag icocompare, ang layo talaga, siguro, I'd say noon. Dahil asawa ko na siya, ha?

Interviewer: Sige, patuloy lang po, sorry.

Speaker [00:24:54]: Yung, ano, feeling ko, na yun, we're together kasi yung alam yun, kasal kami. Parang inano na namin yun na kailangan, we have to stick together yun kasal tayo yun eh. Ganun, kasi dati diba, ano naman. Hindi ka naman, yung parang boyfriend girlfriend lang. Pero kung sa quality, no, ah, hindi yun niya, kasi iba eh, pag kasal eh, mas 24/7, ano na eh, nakikita niya na yung isa't isa, niyong ginagawa na isa't isa, ano namin yun, iba eh. Dati kasi parang, magkikita lang kayo kung, ano, kung kailan. Kaka yun nga, malaki yung factor, yung, malaki yung difference, kasi [Nationality] and [Nationality], iba eh. Well, for me ah.

Interviewer [00:25:55]: In what way po kaya?

Speaker: I think yung ano, more on the, sa business side na yung time nila, their time is committed, at least for him ah, committed talaga to working, yun ganun. So we have less time to do yung mga ano, wala kami masyadong mga vacations, yun yan, wala kami masyadong mga.. Kasi yung the whole day namin is committed sa ano sa work parang walang. So siya ah. Wala kami ganun unlike before, naman parang, okay Saturday, let's go here, right? Let's watch a movie, let's, ano, yung ganun. Ngayon wala eh. Bihira.

Interviewer: Pero nung mag boyfriend, girlfriend, nagagawa niyo po siya dati?

Speaker: [00:26:59] Ah, ano na siya, working na rin siya. Actually college pa lang, nag-work na siya. Parang kilala ko na committed na talaga siya sa, lagi siya may trabaho, parang ganun. Nung girlfriend boyfriend bihira. Meron, parang what to eat. So, pag magkikita kami, we have dinner.

Interviewer: Ano niya po yung pagiging busy niya po, is this something that you, parang considered as something positive? Before you married him, or na-imagine niyo po ba, na his commitment with his work, will be something, that could possibly affect your time together?

Speaker: At first, before, before I got married, it was a positive thing.

[00:28:00]: I really wanted someone, was dedicated to, yung talagang ano, ano magtrabaho, marunong magtrabaho, in hard work thing. That's what I like about him, actually. And I'm proud of that, not thinking na it will, yung, yung no, siguro ngayon na lang, at siya, adjustment pa yung marriage, diba. Hindi ko na isip, may negative pa yung, may disadvantage pa yun. Somehow na yun yung naging problem talaga naming. Actually yung naging problem na wala siyang time . Ayun yung naging problem. So, at this point, after [16-20] years, naka-realize na hindi. Maybe, he's doing this for the family.

[00:29:00] Pero, at the same time, I have needs din, I need time with my husband, yun na lang. So, parang sabi ko, ako na lang, like, adjust dun sa, ano niya ngayon, sa kanyang schedule. And at the same time, I was thinking na, ay ako na naman. Kumbaga, siyempre may, pag nagtrabaho ka ng mabuti may makukuha ka rin, out of it, diba? So, kami yun nga comfortable life, yun, nacompensate naman nga. Sabi ko, baka naka ito ngayon pero kasi dumating kami sa point. Lately lang naman naging comfortable yun life namin. So, yung at that time, naisip ko kung hindi naman siya mag-strive paano naman kami kakain? Diba yung mga ganun?

Speaker: [00:30:00] Hello po. Pero parang nawala, ayan.

Interviewer: Okay, parang pag gumagalaw ako nawawala. Ito na po pala ang perfect angle. Ayon, sorry po. So, ang huli kong narinig yung mag-work, di naman, magiging comfortable ang buhay.

Speaker [00:31:00]: So parang at that time kasi pag hindi naman ako mag-work, parang, kung nga mapapaisip ko, kung, time ba gusto ko o ano hindi ko din balance. Maybe, because sobrang hirap kami dati nakailangan talaga niyang gawin yun. And I, I wasn't working full time I was just helping out sa business. So noong nag-asawa na ako I stopped working. So, yung ano namin yun, decision namin yun to help him out. Tapos, so naisip ko na kami naman ang may gusto nito, na, I'll just help him, you know, sa business namin, hindi talaga ako, ng full time employee, o ano. So, siya talaga yung gumagalaw, diba? So siya yung walang, walang, lumalabas siya yung walang oras. Kasi siya nang yung. So yun, na ano ko na lang na, okay, okay na rin.

Interviewer: Parang compromise po talaga ano.

Speaker: Parang ganun na nga nangyari.

Interviewer [00:32:00]: So, kailan niyo po masasabi na, mataas ang kalidad ng isang relasyon? Tapos, kailan naman po kung mababa ang kalidad ng relasyon?

Speaker: Ako kasi, I always say sa husband ko. If we have good communication, kasi feeling ko, communication lang, ang key for a good relationship. Anong, parang ang layo ng mararating ng, relasyon ninyo diba. Kami kasi hindi masyado eh. So parang feeling ko yun yung kulang, na naging dahilan para maging mababa ang rating sa relasyon namin.

Speaker: Pero yun nga wala, hindi kam wala kaming good communication. We don't converse so much na yung anything under the sun. So, feeling ko yun yung nag ano.

Speaker: [00:33:00]: So, ang taas ng tingin ko sa mga tao, sa mga relasyon na, ang galing, yung, nakakapag interact, sila, converse, na without arguing, without any conflicts. Kami kasi, mayganun. So, hindi ko, yun, yung nakakapag pababa, if you don't know how to communicate with your partner—

Interviewer: Pero, do you have any language barrier you receive it, namin, marunong po pa siya mag-[Language], or ang primary communication yun po pa yung English?

Speaker: Hindi, wala naman kaming language barrier. [Language], [Language] na naman siya.

Interviewer: Yes. Opo.

Speaker: But ano, when, kasi, nakikita ko lang na language barrier kaming dalawa ha. Kung kaming dalawa lang problema, kaya lang kasi, diba. So, when they talk, they talk in [Language], I don't understand that.

Speaker: [00:34:10]At first, it was a problem, kasi parang, I feel disrespected, I feel that it's not polite, diba, hindi ko na hindi nila, baka they're talking about me. So, I talked about it naman even before na. Wag sanang ganon, na, yun. Pero kaming dalawa kung kausap lang niya ako, tagalog yun.

Interviewer: Parang yun din naging challenge niyo po, ano nung pandemic.

Speaker: Sobra.

Interviewer: Parang bagong person in the equation with the adjustments.

Speaker: Yes, sobra. And then, you're with him 24/7 diba. At first, ano yun, hindi ko alam kung paano 'to, hindi ko alam, talaga, at time, that's why I really had to, ano, counseling.

Speaker: [00:35:00] So, baka yun, I'm okay now, with my mother-in-law.

Interviewer: So, pano niyo naman po masasabi kung mababa yung quality ng relationship. So, sabi po kanina mataas, kung may magandang communication. Pag mababa po, ano po kaya nangyari?

Speaker: Yun parang ano sobrang kakausap niyo parang nagaaway na kayo, yun parang, palaging, hindi nagkakaintindihan kasi, yung away na agad. Parang palaging hindi nagkakaintindihan kasi yung away na agad dumating sa point na may nangyayari na lang bakit palaging paaway yung confrontational na yung yung usapan yun niyo. Napakababaw pero confrontational yung dating.

Interviewer: [00:36:00] So para sa inyo po ang pinakamahalagang bagay sa isang relasyon ay ang communication, good communication pala.

Speaker: Okay. Kasi ewan ko for me that one kasi with that you'll learn to respect your partner. You'll learn to, para ang dami na eh dami na yung pwede, after that. If you know how to communicate properly.

Interviewer: Para nag-dodomino po siya, ano.

Speaker: So kasi yung din yung downfall ng relationship.

Interviewer: Okay. So, nasabi ko po kanina kung ano yung, ano sa tingin niyo po yung, mahalaga sa isang relasyon, ano naman po sa tingin niyo nagpapatatag sa isang relasyon?

Speaker: [00:37:00] Papatatag, niya yung ano, ano. Ano ba siya?

Interviewer: Siguro kung mahalaga, subjective ano sa tingin niyo yung mahalaga to sustain relationship pero in sustaining it parang ano po ba kaya ang gagawin niyo para maging stronger naman siya?

Speaker: [00:38:00] Ahhh. Aside from love and the feelings you have with each other minsan feeling ko nawawala yun eh. I think its more on the respect you have for your partner. Kasi with that minsan kasi nawawala or naano ka eh. Nawawala ka sa sarili mo yung parang pano ba. If you have respect for him, parang you would come to your senses ulit na you should'nt do this or that para di ka mapariwara. Tapos siguro yung love. Kasi hindi ko rin alam kung love. Pero for me I think it's respect.

Interviewer: [00:39:00] Respect opo. So para sa inyo naman po ano ang love or pag-ibig.

Speaker: Oo nga eh. Alam mo for me, ayun din yung siguro ano. Love hindi ko alam. Unconditional love meaning how I feel for my daughters, for my parents, yung ganun. Yung parang kahit na you go out of your way basta you make sure they are fine. Siyempre nag-aalala ka. Yun yung ano ko ng love eh. That is my basis.

Interviewer: Pag nag-aalala po kayo sa kanila?

Speaker: Oo yun yung basis ko. Ayaw mo na mag alala. So aayusin mo lang ganun.

Interviewer: [00:40:00] So para sa inyo naman po gaano kahalaga ang pag-ibig sa isang relasyon?

Speaker: Siyempre mahalaga siya kasi if meron talagang love hindi mo, parang ang ayos ninyong dalawa. Nandun na lahat eh may respeto ka, may maayos ka naman makausap. Lahat yun, ewan ko lang ha. Di ko lang sure, pero feeling ko. Magkakasama sila diba. You love that person edi you respect, you talk to him properly, yung mga ganun.

Interviewer: [00:41:00] So paano niyo po malalaman kung mahal ka ng inyong asawa?

Speaker: Yung parang he goes out of his way to make sure everything weoul be alright. Kunyari, nag woworry siya sayo or yung ganun feeling ko. Tapos yung talagang nahihirapan siya, he strives to make ends meet. Yung mga parang talagang yung ganun effort. Doon ko lang maano feeling ko lang.

Interviewer: Pag umeeffort po siya. So ano po yung mga hamon na hinahanap niyo sa inyong relasyon? Maliban sa ayun na nga lack of time.

Speaker: [00:42:00] Aside from that. Yung sinasabi ko about sa counselor namin. The way he talks kasi, the way he speaks. Medyo ano siya eh ano ba tawag dun straightforward.[redacted].

Speaker: [00:43:05] Kung bale nakaabot po sa mga pag-aaway tapos napag usapan niyo naman. Okay, pag sa susunod we try to speak properly each other. Yun po yung usual na reasons niyo ng pag-aaway. Ano po yung mga ginagawa niyo para resolbahin ito like yung mga boundaries ganun, maayos yung tono?

Speaker: Ano actually kami, kaya siguro nagpipile up yan. Pag may problema kami we have to talk about it. Like I said he doesn't have the time. Ang tendency is that we have to stop talking about it kasi may kailangan na ulit siyang gawin. So nagpipile up. Hindi talaga siya nareresolve--

Speaker: [00:44:00] So ang nangyayari is I adjust na lang na parang, kaysa naman mamatay ako sa stress. Hindi na lang ako, I'll adjust na lang. Intindihin ko na lang. Ayun yung pumapasok sa isip. So it turns out na nagiging na ito yung mindset ko now. Hindi kami nagaaway, hindi ko na siya inaabala. Pero I'll let it go.

Interviewer: Parang more on internal ang adjustment na ginagawa po ninyo noh.

Speaker: Ganun na nga. Even the counselor was saying medyo ako nga ang kailangan to ano.

Interviewer: [00:44:00] Maliban dun sa internal na pag-address niyo sa mga problems po no. In terms of your ano mga marital triggers. Meron po ba kayong ginagawa para mapanatili ang inyong relasyon?

Speaker: I think yun lang. Ahh.. Umm. Mas maano kasi ako sa mom niya kasi his mom stays here. So yun yung nagiging ano ko pinapakita ko na lang na ano parang ano ba. Inaano ko yung mom niya pinagsisilbihan ko. We get along well naman now.

Speaker [00:46:00] Siguro isa yun sa nakapag ano sa kanya na. Ewan ko lang. Kung may effect sa kanya yun pero nakikita niya na I get along with his mom. So baka may factor din yun. Hindi na masyado mainitin ulo niya sa akin, pero mainitin pa rin naman. Pero ayun di ko alam if may plus points. Ayun lang ginagawa ko. I don't get to talk to him in the day. Since he is busy nga. I talk to him lang pag about work. Tapos pag uwi naman niya. So wala masyadong interaction. Unless may occasion na kailangan iano. I'm comparing lang sa iba ah sa friends naming na friends ko pala. Kasi friends niya ganun din eh.

Speaker: [00:47:00] Maano din sila sa trabaho. Tutok din sa trabaho po no? So okay di ko talaga alam kung dapat. Kung side ko o side niya? Wala talagang pwede.

Interviewer: Parang ano on one hand nakikita niyo po na meron talagang gap in communication. Pero nakikita niyo rin naman po yung source of the lack of communication because of work.

Speaker: Yah eh it's really about work. Naisip ko na lang din na mas okay yung about work kaysa naman iba. I mean dati may hobby siya pero nagstop because nga he had to strive talaga. Kaya nga makikita mo may work. He left his hobbies for work. Kaya naisip ko ano talagang ano. He is making the adjustments also. Para to provide for the family.

Interviewer: [00:48:10] Talagang naka set po talaga siya to provide ano.

Speaker: Parang yun na yung naging ano niya eh. Di ko naman naisip sa family ko. Diba Filipino environment na family- oriented kapag Saturday Sunday. Magkakasama kami. May family day talaga. With him kasi wala 24/7 on call siya.

Interviewer: So masasabi niyo po ba mabuti para sa inyo itong relasyon na ito? Para sa iyo po personally.

Speaker: Naisip ko rin yan eh kung ano ba. Dati di ko yan iniisip. Para bang okay. Nacompare ko ako If I were in my shoes.

Speaker: [00:49:00] Let's just say yung pinakamalapit, my sister's shoe. I still prefer to be in my shoe even if we have this problems you know or may flaw yung ano. I still prefer to be in our relationship now. In my, where I am right now.

Interviewer: So sa tingin pano po kaya nakakabuti itong relasyon niyo po ngayon? Kasi you still stay. So siguro po diba as part of the decision-making how is your process?

Speaker: Sorry I didn't get that.

Interviewer: Paano po nakabuti yung itong relationship niyo po as a individual?

Speaker: [00:50:00] So ayun nga If were to compare in someone else's shoe. I chose to be here pa rin. First diba I said, I wanted a hard-working man and a responsible person. Gusto ko iyon yung ganung klase. And he is that, ang ano nga lang is ayun nga yung oras which is I think is iweweigh mo lang eh. Yung oras niya or ito lang. So parang nakakabuti in the sense na we are both right now ano kami eh.

Speaker: [00:51:00] Pano ba. Nasa peak kami or prime kami ng age namin for opportunities and we are both inclined to grab that right now parang sige ok na rin diba? Ok na rin. Nakabuti na rin yun na all these years have past na nag-strive siya. Ako natututo ako na ganito dapat. Ngayon dumating sa point na reach na naming na we have to work hard and dapat nasanay na ako ngayon. Kung di pa ako sanay ngayon wala na kami. Kasi hindi ko maaano yun eh. Hindi ako sanay. So ngayon, naiintindihan ko kung ano yung nangyayari. So we stayed together. Naintindihan ko naman na lahat. And I wanted this nga ganito. Does it make sense?

Interviewer: [00:52:00] In terms of parang moving forward in terms of career nakita niyo po siya kung gaano kahalaga? Tama po ba?

Speaker: Yah kung naging laxed kasi kami no dun sa ano no. Kung pinilit ko yung gusto ko na oh give time ganyan ganyan dati. Siguro yung parang alam mo yun "petiks petiks" na sinasabi. Siguro di naming mararating yung ano naming ngayon. Nagkaano siya. Nanganak ba yung pag-strive niya for the past years. Parang fruits of his labor.

Speaker: [00:53:00] Parang feeling ko ay yah it works. Ako lang I should be more supportive, should be more ano. Which is ayun na ang nangyayari now. Kasi dati feel ko nagwhiwhine lang ako. Yung parang whining na ano complain lang ako palagi. Kasi ito nga yung nakagisnan ko na buhay. Dati relax relax lang. I'd say okay sa ganito pala. Maybe because he thought me how to handle itong ganitong situation. So in terms of relationship, ngayon na lang to--

Interviewer: Opo.

Speaker: Mas naging better, kasi alam ko na kasi ito pala yun. How it should be.

Interviewer: So nakita niyo po yung mga positive influences of that kind of perspective.

Speaker: [00:54:10] Correct correct. The work ethic that is what I proud sa kanya. Eh pano yung time niyo as together. Ayun na yung work as time natin together. There are times where we enjoy. Ganun na ang nangyari. Hindi siya yung dating iniisip ko na dati relax lang. Kasi ayun nga ang nakagisnan ko. Na akala ko dapat ganun.

Interviewer: Parang nagkaroon po kayo ng blueprint of how it should be.

Speaker: Yan oo. Yes.

Speaker: [00:55:00] So diba when you compare with dun sa ano parang ay hindi dapat ganun eh. Pero you realize, I realize na hindi buti pala eh. Even my kids are now, they're learning also. This is life.

Interviewer: So ano naman po, meron po ba nag-iba sa inyo kung ikukumpara ngayon at kung bago po kayo naging magkarelasoyon?

Speaker: Ah yes ang laki. Like dati I said diba. Sheltered kasi ako, sheltered ako na tipong wala ako alam sa buhay. Sa reality kasi protective parents ko eh. Parang oh my god ang dami kong natutunan. Ang dami kong learnings yung tipong kahit technical ha. Dami ko natutunan.

Speaker: [00:56:00] So nangyari is mas marunong siguro to what ba. Lahat na eh. Mas kaya ko na, you can rely on. Kasi bunso ako my siblings even if they are way older than me. They can rely on me I am responsible. And I know how to you know handle yung mga. In terms of work ha kung ano kailangan gawin mga responsibilities. Unlike before, wala naman ako resposnibilites sa buhay. Mas naging active ako.

Speaker: [00:57:00] In terms of personality I am more confident now than before. I am not this talkative and I don't have any inputs when you talk to me. Pero now nakakintindi na. I don't know maybe because tumatanda na rin --

Interviewer: Opo parang nagkaroon kayo ng mga learning curves ano exposure--

Speaker: Yes exposure correct. Correct.

Interviewer: Paano naman po si [Partner's Name] meron naman po ba nagiba sa ngayon? And bago po kayo naging asawa or kahit boyfriend/girlfriend?

Speaker: [00:58:00] Kasi parang [26-30] kami nag-asawa. Before that hindi ko kasi alam kung paano siya sa word masyado. Pero hindi ko rin alam kung paano siya. Kung as a person, alam ko responsible siya talaga even before. Nagiba kasi, ang naiba sa kanya I think mas nakita yung flaws niya eh. So uhm, kasi ang reklamo ko palagi is hindi siya sweet pero he has a way of showing it pa rin. Not siguro dun sa gusto ko o nakagisanan ko noh.

Speaker: [00:59:00] Pero he has that way of showing it. Dati kasi nashoshow niya in less obligations before. Kaya mas nakikita ko dati, unlike now siguro swamped siya with work yung talagang makikita ko na hindi ko nakikita before. Kasi hindi ko naman siya kasama ko sa gabi. So ayun lang ang nakikita ko na difference pero overall parang siya pa rin naman yan. Wala naman akong, mas nakikita ko lng ngayon.

Interviewer: Opo, parang nakita niyo lang po yung ibang side niya kaysa sa may nagiba?

Speaker: Oo. Parang hindi nagiba totally. Siya pa rin. Siya pa rin naman before mas nahighlight lang

Interviewer: [01:00:00] [Name] meron pa kasi kaming 8 questions pero may next class pa po ako at 3:00. Ok lang po ba if ever--

Speaker: Ay oo.

Interviewer: Meron po ba kayong free time. Maybe same time 1pm tomorrow?

Speaker: Ya okay lang 1pm.

Interviewer: Sige po ayusin ko ang wifi problems. Pero yung interview natin [Name] is engaging talaga.

Speaker: Hahaha.

Interviewer: Parang as an interviewer andami ko po nakikita as inputs of how it was like for you guys.

Speaker: Sana nakahelp hahaha.

Interviewer: [01:01:00] So parang so far yung sa inyo po lang is may angle of work pero the work is not so much. Its not purely negative its not purely positive. I can feel that it is something you are still constantly thinking about--

Speaker: Oo.

Interviewer: Parang in a researcher's perspective. It is a very good input for our study. With how you are telling your story you are not sharing your burdens. But you are still actively thinking about the situation so it is very interesting po talaga.

Speaker: [01:02:00] So sinasagot ko lang po yung tanong niyo spontaneously eh no kung ano-ano lang iniisip.

Interviewer: Nakakatuwa po talaga. So bukas po I will send you another zoom meeting.

Speaker: Yah sure sure

Interviewer: Thank you po bye.

Interviewer: Ayun po. So, I'm going to start with our next question po, no? Parang so here's our next question. So, yesterday I think we ended with the question if there are things na nagbago po sa inyo no when you started your relationship then and now. So, ngayon naman po, can we ask po regarding naman your husband, ayun, na tingin yung po ba may nag-iba sa kanya if you compare now at siya kaka before po kayo naging, you know, mag-boyfriend, girlfriend, mag-asawa. And oh, parang we also stopped there pala yesterday, no?

Speaker: [00:01:00] Uhuh, I think, yeah. Uhuh.

Interviewer: Sorry, ito po pala ang next question ayun po. So, do you feel safe po in your relationship or panatag po ba yung loob ninyo sa inyong relasyon and in what way do you feel safe?

Speaker: Okay. Safe in the sense na parang hindi naman magiging grabe o ano ba hindi, you know. You're in good hands na hindi ka naman ipapahamak ng tao na ito.

[00:02:00] Pero, unintentional siguro, yung away na, of course, you get stress na ano ka, [inaudible]. Ano naman yun ibang factor siguro na kung "safe" pa rin ba tawag na, pero safe meaning na hindi naman intentional yung mga pananakit [inaudible]. I see na safe na hindi naman ipapahamak nito, okay naman yung kayong dalawa. I mean, unintentional lahat eh.

Interviewer: Opo baka in general, parang you know na there's, the care is there, di ba, hindi nga kayo papabayaang, ganyan, so ayun po.

Speaker: Yah oo.

Interviewer: So next question, kung tatanungin po namin kayo kung nakikinig ang partner po ninyo sa inyo, parang in a scale of, pakita ko po sa inyo, one to nine, ayun po. Kung tatanungin po namin kayo regarding this, it's loading pala. Ayun, my partner usually listens to me. How would you rate po your relationship in terms of this?

Speaker: [00:03:15] Listen, kasi medyo ano yung listen. When I listen pagdating sa personal ano namin na mga? Kasi pag yung personal like let's say, I tell him na oh, we talk about yung relationship namin, on the rocks. When I say something about it, about our relationship, dun siya sa number four.

Interviewer: [00:04:00] Number four, ayan.

Speaker: Pero pagdating sa family and kids. Number nine yan.

Interviewer: Mmmm. So parang yung po na sabi na pagdating sa personal relationship nyo po, bakit four ang rating nyo sa kanya. Tapos paano niyo naman po nasabi na nine when it comes to family, kids especially.

Speaker: Kasi ako ay, ako yung nag-aano sa house nyo ba, wala kasi siya, so ako yung take charge siya sa mga bata and siguro through the years nakita niya na maalaga ba, ginagawa ko yung responsibilities ko and obligation ko. Pero pagdating sa relationship naman namin, he feels na, yun yan like I said, we don't, yung communication namin is really bad.

[00:05:00] He feels kasi whenever we talk about yung personal issues, hindi siya dapat pinag-uusapan. Alam mo yun hindi siya dapat pinag-uusapan. So parang feeling niya na inaano ko lang siya. Anong yun, yung hindi siya ganun niya type of person na pag-usapan yung personal matters. Sa kanya, siguro hindi important yun parang ganun, hindi important sa kanya yun. So parang ano lang yun, ano lang sa kanya yun. Hindi talaga magandang pakinggan. So tendency is he'll do the opposite.

Interviewer: Like in what way po na kabaliktaran yung ginagawa niya?

Speaker: Kasi ayun yan, kasi ayun na pinag-uusapan yung personal matters. Feeling niya ano lang yun, sakit sa tenga. Parang hindi naman important. So ang gagawin niya is the more you say it, the more I won't do it. Yung parang garon, the more I bug him or nag him about something or talk about something, the more na hindi. Kaya gaya lang ako naman ang point ko, yun yung yung sinabi ko sa kanya. Ang point ko is parang yung malalaman if I don't say it. That's why yung communication, sabi ko, is a big factor.

Interviewer: [00:06:40] Ayun po, parang yun naman po nain pag dating dun sa pangangailangan ng pamilya?

Speaker: Kasi like I said nga na nakita niya through the years na talagang maayos naman, lahat naayos ko naman pagdating sa pamilya. Pangangailangan, yung mga needs ng family. I attend to all those. Dun nakikinig siya na feeling niya, oh ya, tama ka doon.

Interviewer: Bale parang in instances wherein he knows that's your area, parang talagang pinapakinggan niya po yung input regarding needs of the family. Pero interesting din po yung ginong dynamic. Ano naman po. Next rating naman po kung ang iisipin po tumutugon ang partner ko sa aking pangangailangan. Kung baga sa inyong mga needs po ano, bakit ako po sa inyong rating ulit. Ayun my partner is usually responsive to my needs. Ayun, in a scale of 1-9 po.

Speaker: Ah, needs. Physical, material, needs, 9. Na-figure out [inaudible].

[00:08:00] Love language na service. So parang yun siya. Pero emotional, like I said, hindi siya ganyan. Nasa ano ulit siya nasa four ulit siya below average ganun emotionally hindi.

Interviewer: So paano niyo naman po nasabi na four yung pagdating sa emotional needs?

Speaker: Because no matter how many times I say, kunyare let's say nagtatampo, simple as nagtatampo. Hindi niya, he will take it in a negative way instead of trying to find a solution for it. Para he feels it's a ano eh nakakakarindi lang yung ganon. Parang waste of time to talk about it na yung personal, yung emotions ko.

[00:09:00] Kasi hindi siya, he is that type kasi nga... Like I said, hardworking siya, business oriented. So yun lang yung focus niya. Na anything than that is shallow na. Yung parang huwag na natin ano yan, sayang oras. Parang ganon. So yung mga emotional needs ko, I feel and I've been telling him naman, hindi niya na ano yun nagagawan ng paraan.

Interviewer: So parang, ano po na from what you saying, medyo uncomfortable din siya dun sa mga areas na hindi action-oriented or service-oriented.

Speaker: Yes yes.

Interviewer Emotional needs kasi, how do I help you feel better? So parang dun po siya nanhihirapan kasi parang di rin siguro niya po alamang gagawin ano.

Speaker: [00:10:00] Yun nga. That's what he always says, hindi niya alam kung anong gagawin. Ang ano lang is, gano yung approach na parang he stays away from the topic. And yun naman, yun nangyari.

Interviewer: How do you usually respond po kapag ganun siya? Parang siya naman yun na, oh, I don't know what to do with these kinds of situations.

Speaker: He says that all the time, whenever we're arguing about something. Ako naman parang yung feeling ko, parang oh no, dead and all that. Diba? What do I say after? And then I tell him directly, try kaya, let's you talk to me properly. Kasi that's my, I always tell him, just talk to me properly, be nice to me. Kasi when he talks medyo ano eh. Like, diba sinabi ko kahapon masakit siya magsalita minsan.

[00:11:05] Maybe hindi rin intentional yun. It's just how he is, when he is around people. Kasi ano siya eh, authoritative ang dating. Ganun siya eh, more business nga yung mindset niya. So ganun siya, ganun din nya ako sa relationship. Hindi siya masyadong marunong yung approach. So ako parang hindi ko, dead end na. Pero siya sabihin ko pa rin, what I feel and how he can. Kasi sabi niya teach me, I'll teach him. Suyuin mo naman na ko, be nice, like that, like that. Yun, na, hanggang ganun lang.

Interviewer: Opo, pero ang ending po ba is it something that's being resolved? Or eventually, like yung sabi niyo po kahapon, it's something that you resolve internally nalang.

Speaker: [00:12:05] Internally nalang. Kasi yun niya like I feel dead end eh. Hindi niya, hindi niya alam talaga. That's why nag-resort kami sa ano nga diba referral, kasi he doesn't know how to go about it, to handle.

Interviewer: Yung mga parang emotionally-related issues na po, parang connection mag-asawa, yung mga something like that.

Speaker: Kasi he grew up even my mother-in-law, kasi wala na siya dad. So nine years old pa lang wala na. So sila ng mom niya, he's the eldest. So sila na mom niya. So he strive to work. So until now, yung age ng mom niya, grabe pa rin ang work. Talaga ayun na ang ano nila, mindset nila. Work lang talaga. Parang, other than work, ano na yan, next, least priority na. So ganunn yung naging ano nila.

Interviewer: [00:13:08] So parang yung naging ano po nila parang pattern of responding. Naging very leaning towards providing, parang survival po ano ganun. Pero kung baga, it's something I think that you have talked about. Diba as siguro as part of your processing bakit kaya siya ganun. Kasi bringing parang looking at his childhood experience, diba. So next question. Yes, actually na-mentioned din yan.

Interviewer: Okay pa, sige po. He mentioned--

Speaker: Na-mentioned din ng therapist kasi diba, diyan timeline namin. Now it has, his, ano now, behavior, attitude, nag-reflect kasi yung childhood history, yung background niya. Which dapat, alam ko rin yun, diba, pinasa ko rin ito na ano. Kaya yun, yun yung naging ano ko ngayon. Bakit ako na lang kasi, yun gusto ko. Ito naman okay naman ako.

Interviewer: [00:14:10] So ito po, next question po. Kung okay lang po sa inyo, gusto rin po sana namin and explore ang physical na aspeto ng inyong relasyon. Sabihin nyo lang po sa akin kung masyado itong sensitibo. Pwede ko po ba tanungin kung gaano kadalas pa po kayo nagsesex?

Speaker: Super bihira na lang. Kasi nga busy siya lately. And then ako rin physically siguro. Dahil may ano nga diba roller coaster of emotions. Parang you don't feel like doing it.

Speaker: [00:15:00] Siguro once in months eh. Once in two months? Yun naman, or once in what, two months? Very ano, rare na or more pa kaya eh.

Interviewer: If compared po before when you for example started in your marriage or before marriage?

Speaker: Dati we make it a point na meron ganyan, may interaction. Maybe because he was less busy back then. Pero, eto during the pandemic especially, yun talagang ano na bumaba na because yun nga. Sobarang pagod na siya. Because kami emotionally, we're not okay masyado.

Interviewer: [00:15:00] So next question one po, gana po kayo ka contento sa inyong sex life ngayon?

Speaker: Maybe at my age kasi hindi ko na hinahanap yun eh, diba? Hindi ko na masyadong priority. Unlike before nang bata bata. Ano yan, importante eh. Sa akin ngayon hindi na eh may more on, ano na lang. Pero so okay na, okay na nila ako sa ganito. Hindi ko naman siya hinahanap.

Interviewer: Kumbaga parang if it's something that you still need at the moment. Kumbaga pero since right now, parang it's not something na priority pa. So parang you're okay with this setup. So next question naman po, sa pangkalahatan po gaano po kayo kakuntento in your relationship?

Interviewer:[00:17:00] Share screen ko po ulit yung ating rating. Ayun, how satisfied are you with your relationship? Parang using this scale po.

Speaker: I'm somewhat satisfied.

Interviewer: Okay, so if satisfied po, if you rate it naman from zero to ten, what number of attribute would you give it po?

Speaker: What would they mean? The level of satisfaction?

Interviewer: Opo the level of satisfaction.

Speaker: Kasi diba I said, you know, I'm satisfied. I'm, I don't know what's that. I'm so, medyo six. Ay, no seven na lang.

Interviewer: May one point na humabol.

Speaker: Oo kasi parang inano ko na nga lang yun sa sarili ko.

Interviewer: Siguro po ano kaya po yung magiging rating nyo dito if, for example, we asked you this rating during the pandemic?

Speaker: Oh, it was worse during the pandemic.

Interviewer: Would you say na we'll be using the satisfaction scale or a negative scale? Like this po. Po бага pa towards kabila.

Speaker: I know, yeah. I think it's the negative scale. This one.

Interviewer: [00:19:00] In a negative scale, during the pandemic, parang thinking that point in your marriage.

Speaker: Siguro it went down till negative five?

Interviewer: Tapos ngayon po, you're here in seven. So from negative five, it became seven, positive seven in the kung бага satisfaction skill. Tingin nyo po what went there. Parang anong nangyari? Paunti-unti siyang bumalik sa positive?

Speaker: [00:20:00] Yeah. Hindi ko na rin naisip na magkakaroon ng sudden ano yun. During the pandemic, I was, I wanted to leave and really end the marriage at that time. I couldn't handle anymore. Counseling, partly help in the sense na yung ako, ayon sa sarili ko, individual na ano ko yun nakatulong siya saakin as an individual. And then, like I said, diba yung sa mother, my mother-in-law is here. It was really a big factor na nandito siya, nag-ano rin yung marriage namin. But na turn around nga yun, ay ano tao na, I killed her with kindness. So, winorkout ko kasi muna yung mother-in-law ko before siya. Kasi siya I don't know how to penetrate yung, ano yung ano niya e. So dun ako sa mother-in-law ko. So yun, naging okay kami, na mother-in-law ko, so naging less stress kami, ng mag-asawa, hindi less na yung confrontation, because naging okay na with my mother-in-law. Kasi dagdag pa yun eh, sa problema. And then after that na-realize ko na nasasaktan ako. Yung mga physical, na nararamdaman ko. So, isip ako on my own, basa-basa, ako na, I'll adjust. I'll do things like k-drama help during the pandemic, yung mga this thing ginawan ko na lang ng paraan. Naghelp din that the business is picking up yun malaking tulong din sa relationship namin, hindi na as pressured as before. Although his time, yun naman ang, ano may trade-offs eh.

Speaker: [00:22:00] Yun, time naman nyan, ang, medyo naging, ano, but, nakakaano rin naman ako, like ginagawa ko ngayon is sumasama na lang ako sa kanya. Parang we have time together but still business, right? No dates, no anything. That's okay as long as we're together. So ay feel sige, ito nasiguro yung buhay ko talaga, I cannot change him.

Interviewer: So natupad po ba ng relasyon ninyo yung mga inaasahan niyo po in a relationship?

Speaker: Emotional na inaasahan ko, hindi, hindi. I didn't grow up na ganito kasi yung environment sa family. So hindi ito yung inaasahan ko. Pero parang hindi naman ideal yung hanap ko, pero totally hindi ito yun. Pero kasi ginusto ko yung na-hardworking siya, ginusto ko rin yun. You can't have it all sabi nga.

[00:23:10] So if we're going to ask po parang what makes you keep the marriage, kasi nung pandemic you really wanted to go, what makes you stay po?

Speaker: One, yung values, I think malaking ano yung family ko kasi talagang sa religion din. Malaking factor yun that's keeping me here pa rin. So try pa rin, pray mo na lang, let's hope I'm praying, let's hope there is a miracle malaking factor yun plus, sa kids din, nakikita nila. We've talked to them about separation. Although okay naman sa kanila kasi imbis na nakikita nila na kami ganito, parang okay na lang sila, maybe through yung generation na rin na yan sanay na rin. I opted pa rin dahil gusto stay kasi masaya ko sa family ako na yung parang, gusto kong ganon, may impact. So martyr kung ganun sa family namin, yun yung naging role na babae for us na, ikaw ang mag-glue, magbind ng family. Parang siguro yun yung naging ano.

Interviewer: Parang there's an active effort on your part po talaga to stay, it's a conscious decision.

Speaker: [00:25:00] Yes kasi kong hindi ko gagawin ko, wala, wala, wala, walang family, walang sense of togetherness.

Interviewer: So malapit na po tayong matapos ano, gusto ko lang po isummarize kung ano po yung napagusapan natin, from yesterday and then today po. So ang sabi nyo po you are [46-50] years old, tama po ba? And then kayo po ay married for [16-20] years or [16-20] years? [16-20] years. Tapos parang mayroon po kayong [1-5] daughters, tapos ang tawag nyo po sa kanya, pag kayo lang, you call him [Nickname], tama po ba?

Speaker: Papa.

Interviewer: Pero pag kayo lang po, pag may ibang tao, you call him by his name, which is [Partner's Name]. So ilang po kayong magkakasama sa bahay, [6-10] po no? Tama, [1-5] daughters, kayong dalawa, mother-in-law and two daughters. So [6-10] po pala?

Speaker: [1-5] daughters, kami [1-5]. [6-10]. Tapos kayo po ay may [occupation], [portion redacted] then your quality of relationship if you compare it with your friends. Yesterday you talked about recognizing some of your friends are separated, di ba po?

Interviewer: [00:27:00] So parang, somehow you might be doing something better because you're still together ganyan and then you also went to therapy and that helped and then you had tama po ba [1-5] other boyfriends or [1-5]?

Speaker: [1-5].

Interviewer: [1-5] po no? And then pang [1st-5th] si [Partner's Name] and then your quality of your relationship compared to your other ex you said yesterday parang it's hard to compare because you were so young back then. And then with your husband po parang iba yung pagkakilala niyo sa kanya kasi it's in a deeper level dahil nakasama niyo sa bahay yun 24/7 ayan and according to yun po mataas ang quality ng isang relationship when there's good communication na po ayan. And then in relation to that pinakamahalagang bagay sa isang relation besides good communication you also said respect is important. And then kung ano ang mahalaga sa isang relation and then you elaborated other things that are important in relationship besides love ayan. For you love is being able to attend to the needs of the people around you ayan and then you said love is very important as well because without love parang there won't be any motivation to stay although it's not the only thing that will keep our relationship going. And then you also said na you know that your partner loves you if the person will go out of his way to attend to your needs and then we also talked about the challenges that you have encountered during your marriage especially during the pandemic.

Interviewer: [00:28:00] And also about your mother-in-law parang living in your household really made a change and things that you have conflicts with and then usually the resolution is you tend to try to talk to him about it but towards the end it's always you resolving things internally na po. And then somehow it helped because it kind of reframed how you see the situation. You said you also said we also asked you if mabuti po ba para po sa inyo ang inyo relationship and you said somehow it's good for you because parang there are also some changes with you. You became more responsible ganyan we talked about being the youngest in your family you had no responsibility. And then this relationship introduced you in that kind of dynamic.

Interviewer: [00:30:00] And with your partner naman po ang sabi nyo in general walang nabago sa kanyan it's more of seeing the other side of him ganyan knowing him more. Pero in general he stayed the same he's still the hardworking guy that you met long ago and until now. Which is parang it's like a double-edged sword yung characteristic na yun because on one hand he provides for the family but on the other hand yun din yung reason why there's no bonding. Wala siyang time ganyan in terms of in general do you feel safe in the relationship. You said yes po marriage satisfaction you are satisfied you rated it as seven. But talking about the pandemic if we ask you to rate it before it might have been negative 5 pero yun.

Interviewer: [00:31:00] We also talked about the transition from negative 5 to being a 7 right now you are contented with your sex life although it's not as frequent as before but as you said it's not something that still a priority unlike when you were younger and then ayun po. Tama po ba ang pagkakaintindi ko? Mayroon pa po ba kayong mga saloobin o komento na gusto idagdag bukod po doon sa mga nashare niyo sa amin kahapon at today?

Speaker: Parang wala, nasabi ko naman na parang nasabi ko naman na.

Interviewer: So maraming salamat po bago po, tayo matapos gusto ko naman po ang tanungin kung ko sa pagtago at paggamit namin ng datos na ito so kagoin po namin ang lahat para maprotektahan ng inyong pagkakakilanlan.

Interviewer: [00:32:00] So gusto po namin na malaman kung saan po kayo mas comfortable so meron po tayong dalawang option. Sa option 1, ishashare po namin ang mga bahagi ng transcript hindi ang buong transcript sa research at ito ay anonymous ibig sabihin wala po makakaalam na kayo ang nagsagot nito no names. Sa option 2 naman po ibabahagi namin ang buong transcript sa researcher tatanggalin po namin ang mga detalye na maaring magpakilala sa inyo halimbawa maliban sa pagtanggap nang pangalan. Tatanggalin namin kung nagmention kayo ng paaralan, trabaho, location pero sobrang liit lang din naman po ang chance na may magkakilala sa inyo dahil sa interview natin una, kailangan lang po talaga nilang makikita ang report dapat mabasa nilang mabuti para malaman po nila yung mga karanasan nyo sa buhay so sobrang baba lang din po ng tiyansa so sa dalawang ito, san po kayo mas comfortable?

Speaker: [00:33:00] I am okay with option 1.

Interviewer: Ok po ayun po so salamat po sa inyong activong pakikibahagi sa'ming research, gusto ko rin po ishare na ayun nga po nang sabi ko kahapon ginagawa namin ang researcher na 'to in five countries so para maging matagumpay po ang research na to if ever po na mag magtext kami sa inyo. Mayroon po ba kayong maaring maibigay sa'ming nominator tapos si nominator po could be a friend kahit sino po na tatanungin lang po namin if they know other couples we can interview pero hindi po sila yung interview naman si nominator--

Speaker: Oh tatanungin lang sila?

Interviewer: Opo, or if also know po other couples that we can interview right now we need po a couple couple who's married for more than 20 years naman.

Speaker: Ah more than 20 years yung sister ko.

Interviewer: Ah talaga po kung okay po sa kanila pero individual lang naman ah.

Speaker: Opo individual.

Interviewer: Hindi po sabay.

Interviewer: Pero if ever po si [Partner's Name] papayag po kaya siyang interview?

Speaker: Actually namention ko na oo payag yan.

Interviewer: Kasi busy siya, yung schedule niya.

Speaker: Nafeel mo ba yung pagkabusy siya okay, ano ko at I'll message you pag nag-ano siya are you free any day? Or, ano?
