

Interviewer: Yeah, so I think it's already recording. So again, good afternoon, [Participant's Name]. And thank you for participating again in this interview. Now, let's start with some demographics. So can I ask how old are you, [Participant's Name]?

Speaker: Okay, currently I'm [26-30] years old.

Interviewer: [26-30] years old, okay. And how long have you been with your partner?

Speaker: Ngayon. Ano pa lang eh? We started [Month]-- [6-10]?

Speaker: [6-10], yeah.

Interviewer: [6-10], yeah. So bago, bago pa. Okay, so do you currently have any children?

Speaker: Ano, no children.

Interviewer: Okay, so who lives in the household or what's your current household setup?

Speaker: Sorry ha. Kasi nasa [City A] kasi ako ngayon eh. And my household is in [City B]. So simple lang, ahm, ahm, si [family member] nasa bahay, yung [family member] ko working, yun lang naman. Simple lang na household setup no complicated. Hind siya complicated. Simple lang. Para simpleng buhay, walang more problema.

Interviewer: How about your partner? Where does she live?

Speaker: She lives here in [City A].

Interviewer: Okay, so [City A] kayo both. So are you renting or do you have, may bahay ba dyan sa [City B]?

Speaker: Ako ngayon kasi I'm under training as a [occupation]. So dito sa [City C], sa [location] mismo namin.

Interviewer: And then si partner--

Speaker: Ay meron silang sariling bahay. Condo, actually.

Interviewer: How about your current job or your main source of income?

Speaker: Ngayon kasi diba I'm under training as a [occupation]. So hindi talaga siya parang work na may income statement or it's more on allowance, more allowance. Yung source of funds or source of income. Just like that.

Interviewer: I see, so yun lang po yung current, ano niyo ngayon. So how would you like us to address your partner? By name lang ba? Or girlfriend, lover?

Speaker: By name lang.

Interviewer: Okay, so let's have [Partner's Name], right? Okay, so let's begin. Can you tell us or can you tell me about your love story?

[Portion Redacted]

Interviewer: Para may something din sa air ngayon, andaming nagkakaubo't sipon. So, yeah, going back, it's a cute love story, but how would you compare? So for sure, you also had friends na meron ding mga romantic relationships. Some of them are already in a romantic relationship. How would you compare the quality of your relationship with [Partner's Name] to that of your friends?

Speaker: Quality, I think. I think it's good, it's stable. It's firm, kasi, well, pagma-compare ko sa ibang mga friends ko. Kasi matagal na nang walang interaction, matagal nang walang communication with my friends. My friends are in [City B]. I was born in [City B]. So medyo, hindi ko ganoon mag-compare. But then sa amin, I believe it's strong. Hindi naman kasi masasabing walang away. Meron naman talagang away. But by the end of the day, our relationship is Christ-centered, word-centered. It's centered on God's word. Everything falls into right direction. So merong instances to learn how to humble myself and listen. But it's good because it's Christ-centered and God-centered. It means it's not only just about us. It's also about the Lord in the middle. So it's something that makes our relationship strong and hold on together.

Interviewer: Have you had romantic partners in the past before [Partner's Name]?

Speaker: Meron din. Meron din.

Interviewer: Mga ilan po?

Speaker: Oh, grabe naman. [1-5] lang.

Interviewer: So [1st-5th] si [Partner's Name].

Speaker: Hindi ako ganoon, maplay ba or what.

Interviewer: So how would you compare the quality of your relationship to the first one to [Partner's Name]?

Speaker: I think kasi [Partner's Name] right now, she serves the Lord. So, she grew on my side. Aside from, kasi yung past ko okay din naman. Decent. But then currently [Partner's Name], she can more, she can more understand what I feel. Or you know, alam mo yung mga pinagdadaan ng isang [occupation]. And she can help me with the things that support me in my [group]. So yun yung isang bagay na wala dun sa isa.

Interviewer: I see.

Speaker: A success of one person nasa support din ng another partner niya eh. So I'm not discrediting the first one. Pero it involves our church din. Kasi our church is different. It's more on [Religion]. [Religion] church. Pero [Religion] church siya pero we use [Religion] here. So it's difficult to have a partner na hindi totally [Religion]. It's 100% [Nationality] yung previous. And we would usually talk to people, to minister to people who is [Nationality]. So it's hard in that way to connect and communicate. Yun.

Interviewer: I see. So for you, what makes a relationship high quality?

Speaker: This is for me ha? How to make a relationship high quality. Yun. It's God-centered, tri-centered, centered into the word of God. Kasi any relationship, after the relationship, it was initiated by God. So if a crisis is not there or God is not there, then there's no quality in your relationship. It's just feelings.

Feelings will fade away. If the feelings fade, what happened? There's already a third party na yan. If we look back into the Bible, the first is Adam and Eve, diba? So relationship talaga is originated by God. So if God is not in the picture, it will all lose away. Although, siyempre hindi naman natin hindi discredit. Yung iba wala naman. But okay, yan na lang. That's just for me. For it's Christ-centered, word-centered relationship. That makes relationships strong.

Speaker: So of course, ano din siguro sa part ng babae, would have the same vision with the guy parang gan'on.

Interviewer: How about low-quality? What makes a relationship low-quality?

Speaker: Makes a relationship low-quality. Siguro sa guy naman na part 'to, or vice versa. It's only on my opinion ha. Kasi like for example right now, yung lalaki likes a girl, depending on his intentions. If his intention is just for playing or pasikat, or tignan mo nakuha ko 'tong girl. So low-quality relationship parang yah. ang babaw. But if the intention of the guy is to really love and has the intention of marriage, by then, dyan pa lang. It's a start of a good relationship. Siguro, within the relationship also, if yung guy or yung girl doesn't talk to each other, doesn't listen to what another parati lang may away. It's a low-quality relationship. Walang communication. Communication is also the key to it. Kami may nag-away din naman kami pero, we make it to a point na, okay, before the night ends, let's talk about it. Sana, before the night ends, ito yung mga mga pinag-away natin. Kahit hindi pa nasolve, but let's bring to a point na we forgive yung another. Pag forgive na, okay. Next day mawala na, actually move forward na kayo talaga. So, for me, communication is important. Towards the guy also, yung intentions niya. Mali yung intentions niya nung una, wala na talaga. Paano pa masasabing good yung relationship niyo?. Siguro, he goes into a relationship with the intention of just to pleasure himself. Mali yun, di ba? Hindi naman pwede yun. It's not a good relationship, it's actually poisoning your mind and your, poisoning your mind and destroying your body. Kaya, why is it na maraming nag- I may be out of the topic ha, pero it maraming nagkaka-AIDS or HIV, it's because they're outside of marriage. But if you're inside the marriage, you can see there's a protection, a defined protection against this. Yeah. Maybe it's about, it's medyo out of topic, pero yun naman. You know naman. Yung answer ko minsan.

Interviewer: So, with that, what do you think are the most important things in a relationship? I think you already mentioned some of them, but just to clarify, what for you are the most important things in a relationship?

Speaker: Okay, one, for me, it doesn't apply to everyone kasi hindi naman lahat [Religion] eh. Basta nandun sa point nila in their life that they involve God, they involve Christ. That's important. Second, their love, their intention for one another. Not based on feelings. You choose this because you love her. You will love her whatever happens. Third, how to keep the communications, the relationships strong. Communication is the key. Then, fourth, for me, it's about forgiving. When you learn how to forgive one another, it makes a relationship stronger. There's a servant of the Lord, a wife that's actually a Ruth Graham. His husband is Billy Graham. They're both evangelists. She said, if you're going to look to search on YouTube, about Billy Graham, it's about Billy Graham. So, on YouTube, about Billy Graham and his wife, their relationship, it would be amazing at how their relationship is, why is their relationship so strong? Ruth Graham, his wife said their secret is about forgiveness. A good relationship with one another is two person, not only one, but it's about forgiveness. So, don't worry about the future. The relationship will hold still. It will be strong. So, I can learn how to forgive her. She can also learn how to forgive.

Speaker: That's good to hear.

Interviewer: So, how about love? For you, what is love?

Speaker: For me, love is caring. You care for someone. It's not just about yourself. Pag about yourself, it's selfish love. It's selfish love. It's caring about someone. You want to grow old with her. [Partner's Name], actually, [6-10] years older than me. So, love is in the air. Love is not on the age or what, but it's about caring. I want to take care of you. I want to grow old with you. So, for me, it's about that. Giving, not receiving. That's for me. We want to receive love, but it's vice versa. It's more on giving. Giving your life to that person. That's like our Lord Jesus. He loved us. He died for us on the cross. What's the meaning of it? It's giving his life para ma-receive tayo balik. So, at the same way, love must be giving, must not be substantive.

Interviewer: I see. How important is love in a relationship for you?

Speaker: It's really important. Kasi pag walang love doon, how can you say na relationship? Otherwise, you're just playing. Both of you are just playing. We should handle the word love very more careful. Because love is not just a word. It's a character of God. If you're going through the Bible, God is love. So, if you say love, but you know, it's just to pleasure yourself, actually hindi ko talaga ma-express—

Interviewer: Yah, no problem.

Speaker: Love is important. Very important.

Interviewer: So, how do you know that your partner loves you?

Speaker: Malalaman mo naman 'yan--, you will know, you will know. You will know that your partner will love you. That loves you back. Siguro sa mga love language niyo rin. Honest, she cares for you or he cares for you without thinking of any return. Siguro yan lang yung makikita ko ngayon sa kanya. So, unconditional love, especially when you're younger sa kanya. Mas gusto nila higher age, of course, it's for protection. Or if mas minahal ka ng matanda sayo, all the more, there is more reason to say that that girl loves you, that woman loves you. And support. If she really loves you, she will also tell the truth in love. Pag mali ka, hindi ka niya kakampihan, kapag mali ka, mali ka talaga. So, for me, that's the one thing. Maraming beses, galiit sa sa'kin kapag may nagawa akong mali. Hindi naman siya mali as in wrong, pero it's not good to look at. So, she changes you to become better person.

Interviewer: Thank you. So, you previously mentioned that you and [Partner's Name] are both serving diba and you also mentioned that [Partner's Name] supports you in the [group]. So, with that, would you say that the relationship is good for you?

Speaker: Yeah. It's already good.

Interviewer: So, how does [Partner's Name] show her support sa [group], in your [group]?

Speaker: For example, as a servant of the Lord, of course, we are very busy. Sabi niya. She would encourage me that if I'm busy, I have something to do for the Lord. You should do your work. Wag mo ko i-first place sa heart mo. Second place. The Lord is all first place. So, give everything. Don't worry about me. Yeah. And I think, support and spiritually. Hindi naman ibig-sabihin, we are a servant of the Lord, there's no more problem or burden sa likod namin. [Partner's Name] would support me on that way. Minsan, nawawala yung direction, through fellowship, she helps me to look to redirect again my path.

Interviewer: That's great. So, now let's talk about challenges in your relationship. So, what would you say are challenges in your relationship?

Speaker: Na-encounter namin ngayon? Excuse.

Interviewer: No problem.

Speaker: Siguro ano, may mga challenges, pero maliliit pa eh.

Interviewer: Like what, siguro?

Speaker: parang wala nga akong maisip. Walang challenge. Siguro ngayon, kasi we're getting married next year.

Interviewer: Wow.

Speaker: So, that's one of the challenges ahead. We will be facing. Hindi yung financial, but of course new the chapter of life. Whether may baby or what. So, I think the challenges is there. Waiting in the future. So, ngayon, medyo chill ngayon eh.

Interviewer: Wow. So, when will the marriage be?

Speaker: [Month Date].

Interviewer: Oh, may date na. Wow. Lapit na rin. It's a new chapter. Yeah.

Speaker: So, yun talaga yung mga challenges. Well, the planning stage. Uh, yung mga hindi ko lang masabi challenges kasi talaga. Pero, I think the challenges still lies ahead.

Interviewer: So, how about fighting? Do you and your partner fight? Do you and [Partner's Name] fight?

Speaker: Oo meron. Hindi naman yun mawawala. Fighting is always there.

Interviewer: But ano, what would you say these fights are? What are they usually about?

Speaker: Actually, ano na naman yan eh... Siguro, kasi ako din may part ako eh. Mabilis ako magalit. I'm a hot-tempered person. Minsan, nag-aaway lang kami kapag mataas yung pride ko. Ayaw magpatalo. Kasi alam ko naman na tama and she's changing me. Changing me to become a better person. So, minsan, alam mo naman ang lalaki, mapride. Pero at the end of the day, if you just calm down and look at the situation, look at the big picture, mali din naman ako. So, kaya nga I'm thankful because hindi niya hindi siya sumasabay. Pag tama ako, walang problema, pero pag mali iyong mga actions, yun.

Interviewer: How often do these fights happen?

Speaker: Nung nags-start kami, halos every week eh. Halos every week. Yeah. Pero, nags-start na to understand each other. It would take months naman for another fight. Minsan nga, last time, nag-usap kami, this [Day] lang, ang topic sa grupo namin is about fighting eh. Sabi, kailan kayo last nagfight? Tapos ang sabi pa nga niya, gusto mo pag-uwi natin, away tayo.

Interviewer: So hindi na masyado recently.

Speaker: That's a good part, you know, if you took talk to each other and understand each other's weakness. You know, look at the weakness of, hindi naman look at, pero tingnan mo kung ano yung weak side niya, weakness or mga things na ayaw mo. If you learn how to accept it and vice versa, she'll look at ano yung mga ayaw niya sa akin and if she can accept it and help one another. 50% of your problem is solved already.

Interviewer: So, speaking of solving problem, how do you resolve these fights? Although hindi na siya ganoon kadalas recently, how do you resolve them?

Speaker: Usap pa rin, usap pa rin. Hindi lang yung usap na parang forgiveness. What should we do next to avoid this kind of this kind of you know, away. So, hindi ibig sabihin hindi na maulit pero or nandun na at least you are already aware now. Next time, I don't want to do this anyway. So, it's avoided. Hindi lang yung, okay usap tayo para mag-okay. There's must be the next what should we do next.

Interviewer: So, resolving no, how long does it take for you to resolve this? So, do you immediately talk about it or meron bang specific like duration before you talk about it since mostly communication?

Speaker: Usually, we talk about it na, by the end of the night, okay na. Pero pag gabi kami nag-away, we would calm each other's head muna. 'Wag muna tayo mag-usap. Sige, rest muna tayo. Important na mag-usap kayo hindi mainit yung ulo para hindi magkainitan. Kapag mainit pa yung coal, iinit pa 'yan lalo. So, pero as much as possible, we don't prolong it for one week. Next day, tapos na.

Interviewer: So, aside from, you mentioned na, more on communication, on communication ang conflict resolution when it comes to conflict resolution, but are there other strategies or other ways you do para mag-resolve ng conflict or problems to maintain the relationship?

Speaker: Yeah, mayroon, but I don't think if it applies to everyone. But for us, it's both coming down before the Lord in prayer. Kasi when you pray together before the Lord, it's the only time you humble yourself, she humble yourself. After the prayer, resolved na, so I don't think it can apply to to everyone. If you're a Christian, then it may apply to you. Yun, because the relationship only the Lord can bind the relationship. Take away God, kaya it's important, God-centered and word-centered.

Interviewer: How about change? Did the relationship change you?

Speaker: Yes, it changed me for better.

Interviewer: In what way?

Speaker: Siguro, in my temper, mayroon pa naman ngayon, pero mas na, mas na ano na, mas nakokontrol by God's grace with the help of [Partner's Name] also. Siguro, thinking, kasi [26-30] years old pa ako, minsan medyo childish pa mag-isip. Kaya it's a challenge, especially when it made me think more mature, make me think more mature.

Interviewer: How about your partner, [Partner's Name]? Did they change during the relationship?

Speaker: I cannot speak for her. Siguro, kailangan tanungin mo siya kung anong na-change sa kanya.

Interviewer: But based on your observation—

Speaker: We are helping each other. We are helping each other. Um... Like sa mga small na bagay, oh kumain ka na ba? Di ka pwedeng hindi kumain. I think we, I believe we are helping each other.

Interviewer: So, how about safety? Do you feel safe in the relationship?

Speaker: Yes, I feel safety naman.

Interviewer: So, in what way do you feel safe? Or what does [Partner's Name] do to make you feel safe?

Speaker: Ano kasi eh.. She would always remind me, say na, nandito na ako, palagi for you. Yeah. And for me, it's already enough. I already feel safe. Still nandoon pa rin yung Christ-centered relationship. Mawala yung Christ, wala na yan. Kailangan, ibalik natin ulit. So, kasi simple lang talaga ako. Yun.

Interviewer: I see.

Speaker: I don't know if na-answer kaya yung question mo. But let me know if, hindi ko na-answer para at least maano.

Interviewer: But you can always, you can always add more later about it. About safety. So, after the next question, I'll be showing my screen for a while. Can you see it?

Speaker: Can I what?

Interviewer: Can you see it? Okay. There it is. Okay. So, for the next question, I'll be showing a statement. From 1 to 9, from 1 not at all true, to 9 completely true. How would you respond to this statement? My partner usually really listens to me.

Speaker: So, 8 lang ako. 8. Sobrang ano eh. Malaking number na yung 8.

Interviewer: Okay. So, how about this? So, next statement. My partner usually is responsive to my needs, again, same scale, from 1 to 9. How would you rate it?

Speaker: 8.

Interviewer: 8 din. I'll stop sharing for a while. Okay. So, you both rated 8. So, why? So, for, doon muna tayo sa first statement. That's my partner usually really listens to me. You rated 8. So, why 8?

Speaker: Medyo ano yung answer ko. Pero, wala naman perfect. So, ayoko i-perfect score. Gan'on lang yung reason. Pero, honest din naman ako. Sa mga reviews ng mga restaurants are very good. I would usually not give them a perfect. Pero, it's already to know na it's already good enough.

Interviewer: Okay na. So, ayun lang. Ayaw mong i-perfect score. So, why not, why not 7 or 9? So, hindi perfect. So, hindi na yung 9. Pero, why not 7?

Speaker: Ayoko eh.

Interviewer: So personal preference.

Speaker: Pasok din naman siya roon.

Interviewer: Okay. So, 8 is just, ano. The perfect description. Perfect number for you. How about the second statement? My partner is responsive to my needs. So, you also answered 8. So, why 8?

Speaker: Gan'un din. Pero, she's very responsive. Pero, of course, trip, hindi naman trip ko lang. That's just, that's just my way of rating. Rating something or someone. Kasi ayun rating. So, hindi talaga ako nabigay nung perfect. So, pag 1 to 10, pipiliin ko yung 9.

Interviewer: I see. So, why not 7?

Speaker: Pero, perfect ko siya. So, wag ko na 'yung 7. Pwede siya 9, pwede rin siya 8.

Interviewer: So, can you give us specific examples nalang of those statements. So, let's try for the first one. Can you give us concrete examples of [Partner's Name]?

Speaker: In the first one, listening noh. She's very, ano, wait, example as in ko ano yung nangyari?

Interviewer: Yeah, concrete example.

Speaker: Siguro, pag down. If I need someone to listen to my, kasi hindi ko masasabi lahat eh, sa tao, of course, she have group of friends, but she is there willing to listen every detail. Without, without, without, wait, I'm looking for that word. Without prejudice. Prejudice. Not prejudice. So, open. Just like a blank paper. Just like a blank paper. Walang ano. So, you just, you can just say everything to me. That's how he, she listens to me.

Interviewer: How about the second statement? So, how does [Partner's Name] show her being responsive to your needs?

Speaker: Yeah. Siguro, like, for example, lately na lang with my mom, kasi pumunta siya dito sa [City C]. Diba, as I said, I served, I served as a [occupation]. Yung [day] kasi, usually, I have a lot of things to do here in the church, to prepare for the assembly and all. So, usually, minsan [time] nandito na. Ay, nandito lang pala ako. So, I mean, may ginagawa na ako, just to prepare everything. But, last [day], di pala, di pala last, last two [day], when mom was here in [City C]. And, actually kasi, natulog ako with my mom doon sa hotel. So, to accompany her. Pero, there was a problem on [day]. I really have to be here early in church. So, she volunteered, voluntarily. So, may need na para, kasi may mom, hindi siya ganon ka, kasi just to give a background, hindi siya graduate ng high school or what. So, medyo, tapos first time niya magtravel so, she was happy to, to be there for my mom, yung need na yun. Hindi na naman ganoon, maraming beses din, ko, may suyao, a suyao, sorry, nag-Chinese ako. So, may need ako, may need ako. And, she was there. She was there to give, she was there to support. And, 'yun.

Interviewer: So, sinamahan niya si Mother sa hotel.

Speaker: Pero, kapag hindi niya naman kaya, like for example, kasi sobrang busy, working siya. Nagsasabi din naman, d I understand, what she can give, it's already enough for me. So, she did not fail to do it anyway. I think, meron din siyang maibibigay.

Interviewer: Let's proceed to the next question. And, for this next one, I hope you don't mind, but, feel free to say, if this is too sensitive for you to share or answer. But, of course, we would also want to know more about your physical intimacy as a couple. So, on these days, how often do you have sex?

Speaker: Sex, wala.

Interviewer: Wala. So, none at all, since the beginning.

Speaker: Mga kiss lang meron din.

Interviewer: So, how satisfied are you with your sex life?

Speaker: Okay lang yun, wala naman eh.

Interviewer: Okay, so satisfied naman.

Speaker: I have to be honest, may mga urges din naman. It's part of, as a human being, we are designed to reproduce. But, it can be overcome din naman. Can, especially, malapit na, next year na eh.

Interviewer: Yes. Congratulations in advance. Yeah, okay. So, for the next part, we're nearing the end of the questionnaire. I'll be showing my screen once again. Okay. So, for the next question, so, I'd like you to answer this. So, in general, how satisfied are you with your relationship?

Speaker: Sige, very satisfied.

Interviewer: Very satisfied.

Speaker: Pero yun talaga yung way ko, I don't really answer in a very, you can consider, you can consider it completely satisfied. Sige 'yun na lang completely satisfied. Completely satisfied. Okay. Sige.

Interviewer: So, ayun. With that, you answered na completely satisfied. How would you rate your satisfaction? So, medyo numerical tayo. From zero, not at all satisfied, to 10, completely satisfied. Where does it fall?

Speaker: 10 na natin.

Interviewer: Okay. So, in general, you're completely satisfied overall. So, why 10? So, why 10?

Speaker: Because I'm satisfied. Yun lang talaga. It's 10. I'm very satisfied and completely satisfied. Wala nang hahanap-hanapin pa. The relationship itself, may mga flaws, pero once you are contented with another, it's already satisfied. Wala naman gperfect relationship eh. But of course, as long as we have each other, supporting one another, okay na 'yun. At some of the moment, I'm very, I'm completely satisfied with my relationship right now. At the last of the moment, today, tomorrow, and the days to come.

Interviewer: Wow. Good to hear.

Speaker: I have to be clear.

Interviewer: So, today, tomorrow, and for the days to come, that's great. So, we are close to wrapping up this interview, and I'd like to summarize all the points that we have discussed over this interview. And please feel free to add or let me know if may mali akong mga nasabi ko or if may na-miss akong details.

Interviewer: So, to start with your demographic, so you are [26-30] years old and then [6-10] months palang kayo ni partner. You started the relationship to [Month] this year. So, no children yet and you're currently undergoing a training for a [occupation]. So, you're currently in [City C] and then [Partner's Name], your partner lived in [City C] as well, in [City C] as well, but with her family, sa condo. So, you're currently having [occupation] and it's not a work, but more on ang source of income is mostly on allowance.

Speaker: Yes, yes.

Interviewer: [Portion Redacted]. And then as for relationship quality, comparing to that of your friends, your relationship with [Partner's Name] is good and stable. Although hindi masyadong madedescribe because your friends or friends your relationship is Christ-centered, word-centered and everything falls in the right direction for the both of you. So, you had one relationship in the past but as for quality okay din naman yung past and decent but currently [Partner's Name] can more understand what you feel, what you're going through as a [occupation] and also support in the [group]. You described a high-quality relationship as God-centered. It's initiated by God and it's strong. And as for low-quality it depends on the intention if the intention is just to play around and din that's just playing but if there's an intention of marriage then it's a start of a good relationship. And then for you a good relationship involves God, the most important thing involves God, Christ and then should have the love or intention for one another loving them whatever happens and of course forgiving. 'Yan ang important things in a relationship for you. And love for you is caring, caring for someone not just about yourself but also for others and it's more on giving not receiving. So love is very important in a relationship because without love how can you say that it's a relationship but love is love is not just a word but it's also a character and in terms of how your partner knows they love you through love languages when they're being honest when they care for you support you and tells you the truth in love. So there are small challenges in the relationship.

Interviewer: One challenge would be your marriage next year and after fighting you also fight in the beginning of the relationship halos weekly because you're also hot tempered and medyo mataas ang pride but recently hindi na gaano and then you resolve it through communication and not just about talking but also knowing what to do next so more on awareness and then you do not prolong it for a week so a day as much as possible within the day maresolve na. And aside from communication one one thing you also do together in the relationship is coming down before the Lord in prayer so you mention when you come down together you humble yourself she humbles herself so ayon and you also said that the relationship is good for you because she supports she supports you in the [group] by in terms of spiritually, support fellowship helping you to redirect your past and but--

Speaker: Mentally mentally mentally and physically.

Interviewer: at least at least okay we'll just add that and in terms of change you you said that the relationship change you for the better because you're usually you're a hot tempered person but during the relationship you were able to control it better and you think more mature you're more mature in the relationship and you also feel safety because [Partner's Name] would always say it's good for you and of course because your relationship is also.

Interviewer: And then I showed you two statements so for the first one my partner usually listens to me he rated it 8 so one example includes na pag down because she listens so she listens without prejudice and in terms of responsiveness you also rated it 8 because she's also responsive and you mentioned about your mother staying at the hotel and [Partner's Name] accompanying her throughout her stay so as for your physical intimacy as a couple so you don't you don't have sex pa but there are also there are kissing and all but you're satisfied with your sex life although there are urges but of course you can you can also overcome it and as for in general you rated it 10 so you're completely satisfied in the relationship and as quoted you're completely satisfied in your relationship today tomorrow and for days to come so did I get that right?

Interviewer: So you want to add anything else or?

Speaker: Okay naman.

Interviewer: Okay, that's great and now before we end of course I also want to talk to you about how we will handle the data for this interview and as a research project of course we want to be as ethically transparent as possible and so we wanted you to know about two data sharing options we have for this research project so option number one transcript portion will be shared none of which can be identified to you so the de-identified transcript can be shared or can be read by other researchers and for option two if you're a bit bolder we can share the whole transcript remove of sensitive and overly identifying details although in this option there's a very minimal chance that someone who knows you well might piece together the information and droid back to you although it would take them from time kasi need nilang review yung appendices ng third project and of course no sensitive information will be shared so amounting to option which are you most comfortable with

Speaker: yung ano yung first nalang

Interviewer: yung first okay so again thank you so much [Participant's Name] for participating in this study.
