

Speaker 1 [00:00:00] Okay. And just for the sake of. So having it recorded. I'll be asking you again like, is it okay if I record?

Speaker 2 Yeah it's okay

Speaker 1 Okay, all right. So this is not going to take long. Like mentioned over text and. Yeah. So let's get started. So thank you again for participating in this interview. As mentioned over text, we want to know more about your views on romantic relationships, and we believe your experience and perspective would bring much to the project. So I'll start off by asking you or getting to know you a bit and then getting. To know, like your thoughts on relationships. So how old are you?

Speaker 2 [00:00:56] I'm [15-19] years old.

Speaker 1 [00:00:59] And how long have you been together with your partner? With [name]?

Speaker 2 [00:01:04] Um. It's one of the. [6-12] months.

Speaker 1 [00:01:13] All right. And do you have children?

Speaker 2 [00:01:15] No, we do not have children.

Speaker 1 [00:01:19] And who lives in your household?

Speaker 2 [00:01:23] My mom and brother.

Speaker 1 [00:01:30] And what is your main source of income?

Speaker 2 [00:01:35] My [job].

Speaker 1 [00:01:46] And how would you like me to address your partner? Girlfriend. Partner. Lover. Name.

Speaker 2 [00:01:56] Girlfriend.

Speaker 1 [00:02:01] All right. So, yeah. So from now on, I'll just be asking you general questions, also specific questions, and I'll just be taking like notes as you told me. So. Yeah. So tell me how you guys met.

Speaker 2 [00:02:20] We met through [job]. Yeah. I was a new hire and she was already there and she helped me like, do the job.

Speaker 2 And I was like her right on. And so is starting up more there.

Speaker 2 Yeah. That's how we met.

Speaker 1 [00:02:58] And. Yeah. So tell me more about, like, how you guys ended up together. Like, how did the feelings develop? How? Like, how did this whole thing happen? You know?

Speaker 2 [00:03:20] So at first I think she started to like me. And let me try to remember.

Speaker 1 [00:03:32] Yeah. Take your time.

Speaker 2 [00:03:37] Then we started to hang out more as I like to drive around, we started to go on dates instead of going home and.

Speaker 2 Oh, yes. One time during [day] we went to a party.

Speaker 2 And she was there and then I think we both [drank] and then she confessed. And. I guess I confess as well.

Speaker 2 And yeah, that's, i think that's one. At first we liked each other. And like [1-5] months later, we decided to officially go.

Speaker 1 [00:04:38] Cool. And how did you know? Like you liked her. Because you said you started hanging out with her and. Going on date. So what made you want to go on a date with her?

Speaker 2 [00:04:57] At first I wasn't sure, but as I hung out over my she became. Um. More attractive. I though that she was funny, outgoing. And that shows a good person.

Speaker 2 And I like the personality. Like, I think I fit my personality as well.

Speaker 1 [00:05:32] In what ways?

Speaker 2 [00:05:35] Like. She's. She likes to mess around a lot, our idea.

Speaker 1 [00:05:45] Mhm.

Speaker 2 [00:05:48] Like a lot of jokes.

Speaker 1 [00:05:59] All right.

Speaker 2 [00:06:01] Yeah, I. And be on top of her things. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:06:12] Got it. And so, yeah, so you told me a little bit how you guys met and how the feelings develop now since, you know, like other types of relationship, other types of relationships kind of influence your own relationship that you have with either like your girlfriend or I guess closer ties of relationships. So how would you compare the overall quality or, you know, however you would define that of your of their relationship of that of your friend with the one that you have now with [Partner's Name].

Speaker 2 [00:07:04] Oh, like. Like comparing it to my friend. A friend?

Speaker 1 [00:07:11] Yeah. How are they different?

Speaker 2 [00:07:14] I'm much more closer to [Partner's Name] like I can tell her anything. She would gibe like support and all that. But with my friends it's more of like, we joke a lot and it can't really be like. I guess he could be. Like it could be serious at times, but most of times they joke around and can't really like. Be honest like or be serious, I mean.

Speaker 1 [00:07:40] Mhm.

Speaker 2 [00:07:42] And, um, then me and [Partner's Name] definitely are are closer. I mean like, a lot more close than my friend. So, yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:08:15] So. So basically I'm here trying to understand, but the fact that you guys joke around more, but also have situations where you can be serious together, does what brings you guys closer? Or that's what makes you feel closer.

Speaker 2 [00:08:39] I guess yeah. I think you can be completely comfortable with her. Or with, yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:08:54] Um, yeah. So, uh, like mentioned, different types of relationships can influence your relationship, so. Talking more about your past experiences, how many romantic partners have you had?

Speaker 2 [00:09:14] Including.

Speaker 1 [00:09:15] Not. Not including the current one.

Speaker 2 [00:09:17] Okay. Just [1-5]

Speaker 1 Okay

Speaker 1 [00:09:22] And yeah, so like around the same question, how would you compare the quality of that relationship the past one to the current one?

Speaker 2 [00:09:34] The past one was like. It was like messy since it was the first. So like you know the act and all that, it was like immature thinking. So you can say it was like a toxic type of relationship.

Speaker 2 But this relationship, I'm a lot more mature and. Like and I'm more experienced, so I can like. Treat her better and stuff, you know?

Speaker 1 [00:10:08] Yeah, definitely. Could you give me some examples?

Speaker 2 [00:10:13] Like. Say she does something I don't like. But instead of like. Making a mess so I can be straightforward it and tell her instead of starting an argument. And Yeah, that's fixable.

Speaker 1 [00:10:38] Oh. And for you, what makes a relationship a high quality?

Speaker 2 [00:10:50] Where both partners understand each other. They talk it out, instead of arguing. They respect each other. Loyal. And yeah. And that's what matters the most.

Speaker 1 [00:11:14] Yeah, definitely. And, you know. To get more of a specific type of definition here, because a lot of people have, you know, their own type of definition of what loyalty is, right? So what's loyalty? What's your definition?

Speaker 2 [00:11:33] My definition is. Looking. Having eyes for just one person. And Not having romantic eyes towards any anyone else, just your partner.

Speaker 1 [00:11:54] Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:11:55]

Speaker 1 [00:11:57] And how would you define respect?

Speaker 2 [00:12:04] Respect uhm like uhm that's accepting who you are, not to judge, you know.

Speaker 1 [00:12:18] Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:12:20] Yeah, I think that's respect.

Speaker 1 [00:12:23] All right. So what do you say? Or what would you say are the most important things in a relationship in general?

Speaker 2 [00:12:40] In general?

Speaker 1 [00:12:42] Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:12:45] Maybe it's just, it's just loyalty.

Speaker 2 Or maybe cause you love each other. . Like I said, be respectful, or respecting each other. And then have fun with each other.

Speaker 2 Ummm and that's pretty much it, for me.

Speaker 1 [00:13:28] Yeah. And what would you say makes a relationship a low quality?

Speaker 2 [00:13:35] I guess when you and your partner don't get along. Mm I guess that's what makes a low quality.

Speaker 1 [00:13:58] Yeah, definitely. Okay. All right. And. So yeah. So you mentioned loyalty for what's the most important things in a relationship? Love to each other, respecting each other and having fun with each other. In terms of love, what is love? What's your definition?

Speaker 2 [00:14:34] Mm like. They're all you want, they're all are they? They're all you desire, all you want to see. Um romantic feeling. Um yeah, it's just. Just the person you want to see all the time.

Speaker 1 [00:15:08] Mm hmm. And what are those romantic feelings?

Speaker 2 [00:15:39] The. I. What do you mean?

Speaker 1 So like you said, that the love is when or when you know you're in love, when they're all you are and all you see and all you desire. But. And you said that you have romantic feelings. Could you elaborate on that?

Speaker 2 Like expense when you kiss someone, and cuddle and hug, and stuff like that

Speaker 1 [00:16:12] And what do you think? I guess it kind of. I'm trying to frame my question here, but what would want? What would encourage you to give them a hug? Like, what's the initial thing? If there is one.

Speaker 2 [00:16:35] For me, I think it's just any time. I can't explain it cause definitely, you have.

Speaker 1 [00:17:01] Yeah. Oh. I know this like it's really hard to define love. And you mentioned a bit earlier, but how important is love in a relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:17:20] I think it's really important. If you don't love each other, then there's really no point in being the relationship. And. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:17:40] And how do you know your girlfriend loves you?

Speaker 2 [00:17:45] By how affectionate she is or how happy she is or she has fun with me.

Speaker 1 [00:17:57] And how do you know she has fun with you?

Speaker 2 [00:18:01] We spend time. Wanting to go out a lot, watch the game with me a lot.

Speaker 1 [00:18:14] Oh, love that. And yeah, like, again, just a reminder. I'm asking, like, specific questions just to get more details. Yeah. So. Yeah. So now you told me more about your. I guess, your views on the quality of relationships. So now for your relationship specifically, what are some challenges that you have?

Speaker 2 [00:18:54] Challenges. Like with our relationship?

Speaker 1 [00:18:59] Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:19:03] First things. We go to different schools and she's in a different city, like for a week. So we've always had like only on the weekends. I feel like that could be a challenge.

Speaker 2 And. Yeah, I think that's like the main challenges. I can only think right now.

Speaker 1 [00:19:41] Mm hmm. And. And why would you say that that's a challenge? The long distance.

Speaker 2 [00:19:51] Because not being able to see each other every day. Just like. I don't know, It's tough because you just really want to be with that person. You miss them.

Speaker 1 [00:20:08] Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:20:10] So, yeah, that's why it's challenging.

Speaker 1 [00:20:14] Yeah, definitely. And it could be this challenge or it could be any challenge, but it could usually lead to some sort of conflict fight or argument. Does that happen with you and your girlfriend?

Speaker 2 [00:20:34] This challenge, no.

Speaker 1 [00:20:40] Are there any other challenges that may cause like a fight?

Speaker 2 [00:20:48] Um, let me think.

Speaker 1 [00:21:03] Yeah, of course.

Speaker 2 [00:21:30] I think. One of the challenges we have is we're both insecure of ourselves. We tend to like. See. Like potentials that there are others just like. Potentially seeing other people. And we both think that. So it's kind of like. But we definitely do reassure each other that we only have eyes for each other. But that's definitely a challenge. Our insecurity.

Speaker 2 Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:22:16] So when you say see potential threats that can hurt the relationship, do you mean like that there is the possibility of cheating or just like. Or. Yeah. Oh, yeah.

Speaker 2 Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:22:33] It's just the potential chance of cheating. But of course there is a main thing of having trust and all that.

Speaker 2 Which there is but there's no whole, thinking about it-

Speaker 1 [00:22:53] And that's when you guys reassure each other, right? That you mentioned?

Speaker 2 Yeah.

Speaker 1 Cool

Speaker 1 All right. Yeah. So you mentioned or reassuring each other. What are other ways that you maintain your relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:23:19] What you mean by maintain?

Speaker 1 [00:23:27] Maintain. Like. Let's say that like. This is just a general type of relationship. But let's say my mom and I are talking and then. We kind of misunderstood a specific event or maybe like she told me to do something and I did it a different way that she didn't like. So one would be maybe reassurance like, Oh, like I see why you did this. I really appreciated that. But then communication comes along like I would prefer if you did it this way or Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:24:15] Okay. Then I guess maintain the relationship like main thing is communication and stuff

Speaker 2 I think reflect and learn from the problems

Speaker 1 [00:24:50] We repeat that?

Speaker 2 [00:24:54] You reflect on the problems and learn from them.

Speaker 2 I respect boundaries too. And yeah and communication and stuff like that.

Speaker 1 [00:25:18] Yeah, definitely. And when you say reflect on problems, how how do you usually do that or how do you guys together do that?

Speaker 2 [00:25:30] And say I made a mistake. And like I didn't listen, I just reflect on that.

Speaker 2 To let go of my problems. But I like what I have. And to listen.

Speaker 1 [00:25:52] That's cute. Yeah. And in general, would you say that the relationship is good for you?

Speaker 2 [00:26:04] Good for me? What do you mean by that, "good for me?"

Speaker 1 [00:26:11] It could just like. If it's, you know, like if you gain something from it, I guess.

Speaker 2 [00:26:24] Yeah. I guess I came. Love. To feel love. To have someone that I love so close-

Speaker 2 Someone that I can depend on-

Speaker 2 Or that can depend on me. Yeah. Just someone there for you.

Speaker 1 [00:27:03] Yeah. And what are some examples where you feel either loved or close or situations where you realize that you can depend on her or she on you and that they're there for you? Could you give me maybe one example?

Speaker 2 [00:27:28] Let's say I'm stressing and I talk to her about my problems. Like about school or work stuff like that. She's always there just to help me, like make me feel better and reassure me on things like everything's gonna be okay.

Speaker 1 [00:27:53] And how does she reassure you?

Speaker 2 [00:27:56] She tells me that everything is going to be okay. That I can do it, I can get through it.

Speaker 1 [00:28:03] Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:28:05] Stuff like that.

Speaker 1 [00:28:13] I love that. And. Um, so in terms of. You specifically and who you are. Has the relationship changed you?

Speaker 2 [00:28:30] I think yeah. I think it changed me.

Speaker 1 [00:28:36] Mm. In what way?

Speaker 2 [00:28:38] I guess to being more considering. I'm a lot more mature. She makes me want to get rid of bad habits. And like. It's. Make my lifestyle be more healthy.

Speaker 2 Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:29:22] Yeah. And what are some examples that you can give either where you want to be more considerate, more mature, or getting rid of bad habits, lifestyle becoming healthier, any of those. What are some examples?

Speaker 2 [00:29:52] I. Maybe if that happens, I would like usually play video games a lot but when she's around, I would just be with her instead of that. Like I can say that's a change of a bad habit.

Speaker 1 [00:30:21] Mm hmm. Oh, and. What about [Partner's Name]? Do you think she changed during the relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:30:42] I think so, yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:30:46] And in what ways?

Speaker 2 [00:30:52] She told me she was. Like. I don't know how to explain. I don't know how to explain. I is comfortable with our last relationship. But it is a lot more comfortable this second chance. That could be a change.

Speaker 1 [00:31:39] Yeah, definitely that that's definitely something that is a change. And. What do you say? That you were the same person before the. Before this current relationship.

Speaker 2 [00:31:57] Mm, no. I feel like. Yeah. I'm definitely going to change first.

Speaker 1 [00:32:12] Why did you say yes or no?

Speaker 2 [00:32:13] Yes. Yes.

Speaker 1 Okay.

Speaker 2 Wait, what was the question?

Speaker 1 [00:32:18] Yeah. Is if you are the same person that you were at that wait. Oh, my God. Yeah. So if you are the same person and either relationship.

Speaker 2 Oh, no no.

Speaker 1 Okay. All right. And. Yeah. So why would you say?

Speaker 2 [00:32:49] Um. Cause I'm like experiences now and so I kinda know the things that I should do.

Speaker 2 Compared from what I did last time

Speaker 2 Like giving gifts, remembering specific days for- uh that's favorites. Like I said more mature.

Speaker 2 Yeah that's I can think of our situation right now.

Speaker 1 [00:33:45] Yeah. And in terms of [name]. Would you say that she has? She. She's the same now as she was before in the other relationship.

Speaker 2 [00:33:59] And I think she's, I think she's changed.

Speaker 1 [00:34:10] And why do you think so?

Speaker 2 [00:34:14] She used to like, this, party a lot, but like, likes to go out a lot. But then she stopped doing that as much while with me.

Speaker 1 [00:34:52] Oh. And yeah, based on, like, you know, how you feel about her. Do you feel safe in the relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:35:00] Yeah, I do feel safe.

Speaker 1 [00:35:04] And what do you say so?

Speaker 2 [00:35:08] Because I'm comfortable with her. It's like. That line where it's like she's your home or your second home.

Speaker 1 [00:35:20] Mm hmm.

Speaker 2 [00:35:22] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:35:27] Love that. Yeah. So for these next questions, it's just like. Like around three, I'll be sharing my screen. Just to give you a visualization of the questions because they're more of like Likert scale. Or is it.

Speaker 1 [00:35:55] All right. All right. So for the first one, my partner usually really listens to me and I'll just be taking notes on the side. How would you rate it?

Speaker 2 [00:36:12] Uh usually, completely true. Nine.

Speaker 1 [00:36:19] Okay and. Why do you say so?

Speaker 2 [00:36:27] Cause she listens if I like say something and I want something, she would be obliged to do it

Speaker 1 [00:36:47] All right. And why not an eight?

Speaker 2 [00:36:54] I guess it could be eight. Because she does listen. And maybe sometimes she'll question if I can't respect the truth. And just, cause she respects me.

Speaker 1 [00:37:21] Okay, next one. My partner usually is responsive to my needs and not.

Speaker 2 [5-10]

Speaker 1 And again, why do you say so?

Speaker 2 [00:37:41] If she just makes me. Just, I think I wanted this and something that I need then of course she's gonna be responsive to it and help me.

Speaker 1 [00:38:02] And last one, How satisfied are you with the with your relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:38:09] Completely satisfied. Cause this relationship is like really healthy and I like I feel really loved. We both feel comfortable. I can be myself, completely be myself around her, not to act or anything. We can be serious at times or we can just really joke around. This is, like I enjoy being with them. Yeah

Speaker 1 [00:38:53] Yeah, definitely. All right. So I'll stop sharing and continue with the last couple of questions.

Speaker 1 [00:39:00] Oh. Oops. Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:39:35] And. Yeah, so I'll just be asking you. Couple more. Oh, yeah. So. So, yeah. So these next two questions, I hope you don't mind if I ask, but feel free to tell me if it's too sensitive for you. And because I wanted to know more about your physical intimacy as a couple. Again, it's just a few questions, but would you like to continue?

Speaker 2 [00:40:16] Uh yeah, anything. Yes. Yeah you can continue.

Speaker 1 [00:40:24] All right. So these days, how often do you have sex?

Speaker 2 [00:40:29] Uh, I don't really see her on the weekdays, so probably the weekends. And like every weekend when.

Speaker 1 [00:40:47] And how satisfied are you with your sex life?

Speaker 2 [00:40:52] Satisfied.

Speaker 1 [00:40:55] All right. So, yeah. So the next couple questions, which is pretty much just like one. Uh, yes. Just one more. So. You said you were completely satisfied with your relationship and. I guess since everyone really has expectations with anything they encounter, right? Did the relationship did your current relationship fulfill your expectations?

Speaker 2 [00:41:37] Yeah, I think it exceeded my expectations because I didn't really expect. Someone like her.

Speaker 2 Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:41:54] You said you didn't expect to like her?

Speaker 2 [00:41:57] No. But I can say that, too.

Speaker 1 [00:42:04] And why would he say that? Like what? Was it a specific trait or.

Speaker 2 [00:42:12] My first point of view or like an. Uh. I wasn't so sure. Because that. Because of what people are saying now how she was a party person and was not really what I'm into. Well, as I got to know her more, she's definitely more than that. And that. She's a very caring, loving.

Speaker 2 And I went to the relationship no about knowing that. I guess.

Speaker 2 And then. So yeah it just exceeded my expectations about how good of a person she is.

Speaker 1 [00:43:11] Yeah. All right. So we're close to wrapping up. And I would just like to summarize what we have talked about. So you're [15-20] years old. You've been together around [6-10] months. No children. You live with your parents and brother. You have a part time job. And in terms of your love story, you met through your part time job. Is it your current part time job or prior?

Speaker 2 [00:43:40] It was prior.

Speaker 1 [00:43:44] And she helped you get situated. And. She helped you or she gave you a ride. That's when you guys started to get to know each other. You said that you thought she liked you. You guys started hanging out more, going on dates. And specifically in [Event]. Both of you guys got drunk and she confessed. And then you confessed. And then [1-5] months later, you started going out. You weren't sure how you feel about her, but as you started hanging out with her, you started seeing her as more attractive. So you saw her as funny, outgoing, a good person overall, and you felt like your personalities complemented each other. And in terms of quality of that of your friends and your current relationship, you said that your relationship with [Partner's Name] is more it's closer. You're able to joke around more, but also be serious when needed. Compare comparing that to that of your friends and you're more comfortable with each other. And you said you've only had one romantic partner in the past where it was you said messy. Not. Where a lot of like immaturity or immature thinking it was toxic. But with your current relationship, you're more experienced and you're more mature. And you gave an example of like when she does something that you don't like, you don't really you don't get mad, but rather you tell her that you don't like it. For. What makes a relationship high quality and low quality. You said that high quality includes understanding so talking to each other instead of arguing respecting each other. So non judging and loyalty, which is having eyes for one person only and no romantic eyes for other people. And for low quality would be partners that just don't get along and have a lot of arguments. Also, the most important thing in a relationship, you said, is loyalty. Loving each other, respecting each other and having fun with each other for love. Specifically. You said the. It's where? The part the partner ah is the type of person or is the person that you would always want to see that you constantly desire them. You have romantic feelings for them where for example, you want to give them a hug any time. And you said the love is really important for a relationship because without it, there's no point in being in a relationship. And. You said that you know that your partner loves you by how affectionate she is, Happy. She's. She has fun and she laughs a lot, smiles and wants to go out a lot with you. And some challenges are the long distance issue and then also the insecurity issue. And again, like I have more details here, but I'm just summarizing. Fights usually occur because of those insecurities. Oh, and I guess I can ask more specifically here. How often do these fights occur?

Speaker 2 [00:48:00] Not that often.

Speaker 1 [00:48:03] Could you give me like a range?

Speaker 2 [00:48:13] Like once a month.

Speaker 1 [00:48:17] Yeah. So, yeah. Moving on. Other types of other ways that you maintain your relationship is to communication, reflecting on your problems, learning. From the the problems and respecting boundaries. And I ask you to kind of like define, reflect. And you said to take accountability for each other's faults and listen to each other. And you said the yeah, the relationship is good for you because you feel loved and. You said that the relationship did change you. You're more considerate, you're more mature, and you've been it's it's helped you get rid of bad habits and make your lifestyle more healthy. You said that [Partner's Name] also changed based on the toxic past relationship, how she's more comfortable now. You said that you feel definitely safe in the relationship because you're comfortable with her and she's your home. And for the Likert scale, my partner usually really listens to me. You said a nine. Being completely true. And my partner usually is responsive to my needs. You said. And nine as well. Completely true. And. Next. You said that the relationship did fulfill your expectations and actually exceeded them. And since you didn't expect to like her, but since your personalities complemented each other A. It made you feel fulfilled? Yeah. So is there anything else you'd like to add?

Speaker 2 [00:50:21] That's all I have.

Speaker 1 [00:50:23] Okay. Yeah. So. Thank you so much. And now, before we end, I want to talk to you more about how we handle the data. So as a research project, we want to be as ethically transparent as possible. And so I wanted to know which data sharing option you're most comfortable with. So the first option is that the transcript portion can be shared, none of which can be identified to you. So the the identified transcript can also be read by other researchers. Or option two if you were bolder. Another option is that the whole transcript can be shared. Of course, with the removal of sensitive and overly identifying details. So it will be anonymized. And although in this option there is a very minimal chance that someone who knows you well can piece together the details in the transcript and narrowed down who among their colleagues they believe it is, although again, no sensitive information will be shared. So of the two options, which are you most comfortable with?

Speaker 2 [00:52:44] No.

Speaker 1 [00:52:45] Cool. Yeah. So, yeah, have a nice day. And thank you again for participating. And [name] will definitely get her extra credit.
