

Speaker 1 [00:00:01] All right. This, this should work. Oh, wow. Yep. All right, We finally got the audio to work.

Speaker 2 [00:00:11] Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:00:12] All right. Yeah, So I just. The first few questions are just demographic questions. These are just basic stuff about you. The hardest question of them all. How old are you?

Speaker 2 [00:00:23] I'm [20-25].

Speaker 1 [00:00:25] All right. You are.. I'm surprisingly older than you. Yeah. I can't believe it. I don't.

Speaker 1 [00:00:37] All right. Well, how long have you been with your partner, or in this case, your ex-partner.

Speaker 2 [00:00:46] I was with them for about [0-5] years.

Speaker 1 [00:00:49] [0-5] years? Alright. I'm guessing you. Do you guys have any children?

Speaker 2 [00:00:55] We do not have any kids.

Speaker 1 [00:00:57] Okay. Who lives currently.. who lives in your household or like, who lives with you.

Speaker 2 [00:01:06] Just my mom.

Speaker 1 [00:01:12] All right. All right. Uh, what is your main source of income?

Speaker 2 [00:1:22] Working with the [company].

Speaker 1 [00:1:26] All right, Cool. [Company], all right. So how would you like to address your partner or your ex partner?

Speaker 2 [00:01:38] I guess.. ex

Speaker 1 [00:01:40] Ex, you don't want to like use names? or you don't have to use names if you don't want to. Okay. What's the name of your ex?

Speaker 2 [00:1:54] [Ex's name]

Speaker 1 [00:2:00] Alright. Yeah. Alright. That's good.

Speaker 1 [00:02:08] Can you tell me about your love story? Or in other words, like how when did you guys meet? How did you guys meet? How did you guys become a thing?

Speaker 2 [00:02:17] Oh. Okay. So, I met [ex's name] when I was in highschool. When I was a sophomore and she was a freshman and we met in a [class]. At first, she was sitting next to me and I was like sitting next to her. But eventually, [inaudible]

Speaker 2 [00:2:50] And then.. became friends for like a year and [inaudible, junior high school and drinking mentioned]

Speaker 1 [00:03:12] Okay. Yeah. Okay. All right. If you hear me typing, that's just me writing things down. Yeah, I promise I'll let you know what we do with the audio as well. Okay.

Speaker 2 [00:3:24] That's fine

Speaker 1 [00:03:30] Okay. So, how will you compare, you know, your relationship with, let's say, the relationship of your friends?

Speaker 2 [00:03:45] Like.. uh

Speaker 1 [00:03:50] Yeah, Like, I guess kind of like the quality of your relationship. If you were to compare it with the quality of your friend's relationship. What, what relationship quality means, That's kind of up to you.

Speaker 2 [00:04:09] Um, so I guess, I would describe it, my past relationship as a little bit chaotic.

Speaker 1 [00:04:22] Chaotic

Speaker 2 [00:04:24] I mean

Speaker 2 [00:05:25] Also kind of feeling that. At the beginning a long time, but I was.

Speaker 1 [00:05:35] Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:05:42] So like, I guess you could say compared to other guys, you guys were a bit chaotic.

Speaker 2 [00:05:47] Yeah. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:06:00] All right. Yeah. What relationship were you guys? I actually don't know. What? Your religion.

Speaker 2 [00:06:07] Yeah. Okay. Hope Springs. Right. Of that. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:06:27] Prior to [ex's name], how many partners did you have in the past?

Speaker 2 [00:06:36] So. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:06:39] How would you compare those relationships to [Name]. Uh. That's. Okay. Yeah. Okay. I see. I see.

Speaker 1 [00:07:14] I see. Right.

Speaker 1 [00:07:23] What would you say makes a relationship of high quality? All right. What makes a low quality relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:07:52] I would.

Speaker 2 [00:08:13] All.

Speaker 1 [00:08:18] Um, one, would you say that the relationship had, like, good communication?

Speaker 2 [00:08:23] I. No. Like. Somewhere.

Speaker 2 [00:08:55] Yeah. All right. Oh. Okay, So.

Speaker 1 [00:09:18] For you, what are the most important things in a relationship? Is that like irrigation or is there anything else?

Speaker 2 [00:09:29] I. They get one.

Speaker 1 [00:09:51] Honesty that. Yeah. Expressing. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:10:18] Why? Why these traits? Why are these traits the most important?

Speaker 2 [00:10:23] I think.

Speaker 1 [00:11:06] Yeah. Yeah. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:11:10] All right. Okay. So next question is, what is love?

Speaker 1 [00:11:17] Mm hmm. Okay. Yeah. Yeah. All right. Um.

Speaker 1 [00:11:51] How important is love?

Speaker 2 [00:11:56] Think of this. All.

Speaker 1 [00:12:15] Right? Yeah. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:12:19] How did you know that your partner loved you?

Speaker 2 [00:12:51] Right? Yeah. Yeah. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:12:53] Okay. What were the challenges in your relationship? I think I know you guys already mentioned it, but I just want to hear from you again.

Speaker 2 [00:13:00] Okay, I. Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:13:31] Mm hmm. Yup. And. If. Mm hmm.

Speaker 1 [00:14:50] Did you guys ever fight?

Speaker 2 [00:15:05] Uh, yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:15:07] Yep. What were these fights about, where they are still about religion?

Speaker 2 [00:15:59] It was like, oh, Lake Trust kind of thing.

Speaker 2 [00:16:05] Okay. When. Right.

Speaker 1 [00:16:17] How did you guys resolve the fights?

Speaker 2 [00:16:20] I can get a. All right. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:16:30] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:16:34] Apart from talking it out, how else did you guys maintain the relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:16:43] Yeah. Okay. You would be both gamers.

Speaker 2 [00:17:15] Mm hmm. Yeah. Right. Good. Good.

Speaker 1 [00:17:24] All right. So next next question has something to do about occupational latitude. Do you think in terms of like you achieving your goals, was the relationship good for you?

Speaker 1 [00:17:38] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:17:39] Yeah. In terms of in terms of your occupation or, you know, your goals.

Speaker 2 [00:17:50] I mean. I. They.

Speaker 1 [00:18:07] Mm hmm. Yep.

Speaker 2 [00:18:09] It was. So. I think.

Speaker 1 [00:18:42] Okay. Right.

Speaker 1 [00:18:49] What about this question that the relation changed you in any way?

Speaker 2 [00:18:55] Yes.

Speaker 2 [00:19:28] And. A lot of.

Speaker 2 [00:19:54] So. Since. Yeah. Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:20:37] And almost did the. Did your partner change during your relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:20:52] I like the. I just. More. The. All right.

Speaker 2 [00:21:59] Okay. All right. My.

Speaker 1 [00:22:08] During the relationship, did you feel safe?

Speaker 2 [00:22:12] Oh, yeah. Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:22:19] So it was an issue where there. How could you tell if you can you give an example of like what safety looks like? Um.

Speaker 2 [00:22:34] I guess. I remember. Number one.

Speaker 1 [00:23:16] Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:23:17] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:23:18] Yeah. All right, all right. All right. Now. That's right. Yeah, that's fine. Let's see. Ah, what about this? I were to show you another show. Your scale. And the scale is basically on a scale of 1 to 9. See? Let me see if I can actually pull it up somehow.

Speaker 1 [00:23:50] Where is Discord? It's. It's in. This.

Speaker 1 [00:24:16] I'm trying to send a picture of it.

Speaker 1 [00:24:32] So I'm going to send a couple of nice slides here. I want to focus on the slide that says it's like on a scale of 1 to 9 and it says, My partner usually really listens to me. So basically, on a scale of 1 to 9, one being, you know, it's not true, not at all. Your partner doesn't listen to you. The nine being your partner always listens to you. It's like completely true. What would you rate for on a scale of 1 to 9?

Speaker 2 [00:25:07] I'd say. Listen to me, I'd say. Close to nine. or like maybe between eight and nine.

Speaker 1 [00:25:22] All right. Yeah. Why would you say. Why would you put it out? Like between eight or nine?

Speaker 2 [00:25:39] Because again like going towards. The communication kind of kind of fell off. And I think you became a bit more independent, you know, about for herself a bit more. I'm not so sure that's the thing, but it was kind of like, Oh, I like, I guess. You going to have a. The difference in.

Speaker 1 [00:26:24] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:26:28] Right? Yeah. So that's pretty much an example of when that happened. Why not? Like, why not seven or why not just a full scale nine?

Speaker 2 [00:26:40] Um, I think.

Speaker 2 [00:26:44] I know. I you know, she would doze off in like listening to me. I would just be like seven because, I mean, I think they were pretty high up. So she really doesn't. Whatever you say she made me feel. It wasn't that I had. What? Yeah. Her feedback on it to the best of her ability. No, I know what you mean. I like her feedback is kind of what made me feel like. Yeah, she like, listens. When I say take my word. I.

Speaker 1 [00:27:36] All right.

Speaker 1 [00:27:39] So and so for the next question. I do have next question and that and it's on the slide. It says my partner. All right. The slide the slide reads my partner is usually responsive to my needs. So it's kind of the next slide. The next slide, and it's on a scale of 1 to 9 again. One is not sure at all. Nine is it's completely true. Where would you rate earlier? Seven. why uh why Seven.

Speaker 2 [00:28:21] Same thing with our relationship. And. My. It was highly recommended.

Speaker 2 [00:29:08] Yeah. Okay. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:29:20] Why not six or eight?

Speaker 2 [00:29:25] Yeah. Yeah. Wasn't that.

Speaker 1 [00:29:39] Okay? Yeah. Alright

Speaker 1 [00:29:45] Cool. All right. So my next two questions are a bit sensitive. Like I said, these are some questions here. You don't have to answer them if you want to. Yeah, here goes. I know. I hope you don't mind. Feel free to say as usual, if this is sensitive, but I just want to know more about the physical intimacy aspect. That being said, when you guys were a couple, how often did you guys have sex?

Speaker 2 [00:30:21] And our men were there and all we did, it was always, um, away from crying and. I wanna be like the head of state. Like in a normal city. We're like. You know, I think, you know, if you read the comments, I mean. And then I did.

Speaker 1 [00:31:11] Okay? Yeah. See. Yeah. All right. So when you guys were together, were you satisfied with your sex life? Why or why not?

Speaker 2 [00:31:37] I really hope. Well, I wouldn't know, I guess, if I was. Not the time. Where.

Speaker 1 [00:31:52] So. Okay.

Speaker 2 [00:31:55] I don't know.

Speaker 1 [00:31:57] All right. Yeah. All right. Yeah, that's fine. Do you think? Having sex in a relationship is important.

Speaker 2 [00:32:18] In a relationship it is important. In order to kind of. Uh. And and and get to the next step. I guess some people are just people thinking of this as. I gotta take a moment for, uh. Uh, that, uh, I think. Do it on the first day. I think it's going to have to be really hard to get.

Speaker 1 [00:33:12] Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:33:14] All right. So we're going to go back to the. Like the scales again. We're almost done, by the way. Yeah. Almost done.

Speaker 2 [00:33:24] It's.

Speaker 1 [00:33:27] So on the slide, you will have something here like. It's basically a scale from, you know, let me see where I can.

Speaker 1 [00:33:39] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:33:40] It's not only a skill, it's more of just a bunch of buttons on the very top. Ah, it says they're completely satisfied all the way down. Completely dissatisfied. All the way down to completely satisfied. That being said, on a scale, I guess maybe on a scale of 1 to 7 or you could just kind of say it on your own one being like you're completely dissatisfied, seven being you are completely satisfied. How satisfied were you with the relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:34:09] I'd say Sensible. I think there. All. Um. It. That's. Still, I guess. What I. Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:35:34] Yeah. Mm hmm.

Speaker 1 [00:35:36] What about? Well, what now? If you were to rate it now, is it still very satisfied or is it different?

Speaker 2 [00:35:44] I'd say. But there's, you know, a. No, never. Oh.

Speaker 1 [00:36:11] Okay.

Speaker 2 [00:36:16] I realized that a lot of. Um. I. A lot of myself, I guess. I don't know. Like, I want me to like her and not really about me. I just.

Speaker 1 [00:36:43] Yeah. So, yeah, you made it about. It was more about her. And, you know.

Speaker 1 [00:36:53] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:36:57] All right. So.

Speaker 2 [00:37:04] It's.

Speaker 1 [00:37:06] So back to the PowerPoint. On a scale of 0 to 10 zero being being, you weren't satisfied at all their relationship and ten you are completely satisfied. So if I were to do it from a scale of 0 to 10, where would you rate her?

Speaker 2 [00:37:24] Huh?

Speaker 1 [00:37:26] Yeah. Basically a relationship. Yep. Ten is the most zero. Ten was the most zero was. You were not satisfied whatsoever.

Speaker 2 [00:37:37] I mean. I. Okay. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:37:42] Mm hmm. Yeah. And I'm going to assume that's a nine because of the same reasons. Yeah. All right. Okay. So we are near the end. They will have, like, maybe five or less questions left. Question, did the relationship fulfill your expectations? Why do you think so? Well.

Speaker 2 [00:38:15] Right. I just. Yeah. Yeah. I do. And we're very.

Speaker 1 [00:38:53] Yeah. Like, did the relationship fulfill your expectations? It was. Okay. Yeah. Um, yeah. So we're close to wrapping up, and I just want to summarize everything you told me. So, you know, you guys met in school like [class], and you guys became a couple, and then it kind of went downhill from boot from boot camp. My. Said that, you know, the relationship was a little chaotic, but mostly it's because of religious beliefs and all that stuff. Communication, communication, you know, high quality relationship is based on communication. Low quality would probably be just based on the looks. So if the relationship is just based on looks and. Other qualities like that can. I know you guys had good communication until the [redacted] happened and then kind of went downhill from there. Okay. Communication. We talked about love. Love being, you know, a comfort and happiness and all. I know like your big you got your guys's biggest issue was religious beliefs, right? Yeah, it was mostly just [Religion]. And then you were a [Religion] and then future kids that also had like something about religion as well.

Speaker 2 [00:40:35] Uh huh.

Speaker 1 [00:40:36] Yeah. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:40:39] Because they have fights and all that. I know you guys mentioned that. I know. It's like it didn't really help because I feel like there was LDR and all that stuff.

Speaker 2 [00:40:50] Uh huh.

Speaker 1 [00:40:51] Yeah. Oh, LDR was kind of. It is a big issue that's here. Yeah, let's see.

Speaker 1 [00:41:00] It does.

Speaker 1 [00:41:01] It's a very, very hard to pull off. That being said, was there anything that you wanted to add? Yeah. Anything that we didn't talk about that you just wanted to add. Oh. All right. All right. So. Yeah. Okay. This being said, I have two more questions. These are my last two questions. The first question is, are you aware you're being recorded? Right? Yeah. Okay. You're aware you're being audio recorded. That being said, I just wanted to let you decide how we handle the audio. And we use that. We have two options. Although if you have another option, feel free to mention that the first option is that we will only and will only release portions of the transcript that you want released, meaning you can kind of filter out like what you want, what you want. Be released because this will be released. This is a research project. So it will be published. None of your personal information will be involved. So I'm not going to mention. No names will be involved, no birthdays, no addresses, no Social Security. None of that will be involved whatsoever. That's the first option, meaning you can kind of just pick what you want to be released or not. The second option is I just released the whole thing with the exception of any personal information. So, yeah, i'm not gonna show you, you know, we're not going to release any information that can be linked to you. Although I will say that. Option two, there is like a less than 1% chance of very, very, very, very minimal chance that, you know, if someone were to read this article when it gets published. There might be like a very, very tiny chance that they could trace it to you if they're good enough to do it. But like I said, we're not showing any personal info whatsoever. I'm not going to share any information or any direct information that will be linked. Use your name, your number, your birthday, your address. None of that will be released. And I don't think you even gave me those information anyway. Your email, none of that will be released. That being said, are you more comfortable with the first option or the second option? Okay.

Speaker 2 [00:43:28] I guess my. On their own or they get personal. However, I.

Speaker 1 [00:43:40] Okay. Yeah, that's good. Even I know you mentioned your ex-girlfriend's name. Is that also fine?

Speaker 2 [00:43:47] Oh.

Speaker 2 [00:43:49] Okay. Yeah. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:43:52] So. Yep. Down to my last question. Thank you. Thank you so much for being part of the study. I'd like you to know I already mentioned this at the start that this study is not just being done in America. The study is also being done in the Philippines, Brazil, Turkey and France. So it's five countries, five countries. That being said, this is the last thing I want to ask you. You do you know anyone who knows someone who could be part of this study? Like, maybe. Their name. Maybe like, you know, anyone who's in a relationship that you feel like would be part of the study. They could, ah, preferably probably someone in a relationship, maybe between 1 to 5 years or 5 to 10 and you feel like would be down to do this.

Speaker 1 [00:44:47] All right.

Speaker 1 [00:44:48] You know, there. Do you have any contact information from them? Yeah. Um.

Speaker 2 [00:45:00] You want. During the course of the. Yeah, like less so.

Speaker 1 [00:45:12] Yeah. Writer's fine. Preferably someone who is currently in a relationship. But if you. If you know someone who, like, they just broke up or they broke up a while back, that's also fine.

Speaker 2 [00:45:23] I mean. Yeah. No, I'm not.

Speaker 2 [00:45:34] Oh. I.

Speaker 1 [00:45:41] She's [Nationality].

Speaker 1 [00:45:47] Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:45:48] Okay. By any chance of do you think it would be okay if I got his name or is that, like, a little sensitive for him? Uh.

Speaker 1 [00:45:58] Yeah. Yeah. Yeah. Okay. Yeah. Um. Yeah. Yeah. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:46:18] Ah, not. That's pretty much it. I might send out a post interview survey that's basically just like. It's just a survey, you know, at the end of a you know, how like at the end of a when you're on the phone with someone and there's like a survey at the end, I might send one your way in a bit. But other than that, um.

Speaker 1 [00:46:38] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:46:39] Uh, thank you so much. If you have any questions about this, uh, you have any questions about this study, you can just let me know.

Speaker 1 [00:46:51] Yeah. Oops. Yup. Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:47:03] Where.

Speaker 1 [00:47:08] Um, yeah. The study will be the study will be published sometime. When that is. I don't know. I don't know when it will be published, but it will be published. Yeah. I can also send you like I can also send you information for you to let you know that when the results are out. So you know, you'll you probably won't get like something like firsthand access, like review, but you probably will get informed, You know, when the study is available to the public, you'll be able to see it. We won't. Share results mean I'm not going to share you transcripts of the other people. Um, I'm not going to share, you know, like what I'm doing with you now. I'm. I'm probably not going to release it the same way. I'm not going to release your, your files. But yeah, we can let you know when the study has been published. Yep. There's nothing to add. You're free to go.

Speaker 2 [00:48:02] I feel. Oh.

Speaker 1 [00:48:26] Okay, so it may need to be 18 and older. Yeah. I don't. I won't be able to interview them if they're minors.

Speaker 1 [00:48:37] Okay? Yeah. The. Okay. Right.

Speaker 1 [00:48:47] All right. Sounds good. Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:48:51] Yeah, yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:48:54] Yeah, yeah. I don't.
