

Interviewer [00:00:00] Okay, So just for the sake of the recording, is it okay if I start recording now?

Speaker [00:00:05] Yeah, that's fine.

Interviewer [00:00:06] Okay. So. I hope you're having a good day. First of all, thank you for participating in this interview, as mentioned, over email. We want to know more of our views on romantic relationships, and we believe your experience and perspective would bring much to the project. So let's just get started. I'll be asking you a couple of demographic questions and then the rest will be your spotlight, just about your experience and this current relationship that you're in, and then just your overall views on romantic relationships.

Speaker [00:00:42] Okay.

Interviewer [00:00:43] All right. So how old are you?

Speaker [00:00:46] [16-20].

Interviewer [00:00:48] And how long have you been together?

Speaker [00:00:51] I want to say about. [1-5] years and a couple of some months.

Interviewer [00:01:00] All right. And then do you have children?

Speaker [00:01:03] Uh, no.

Interviewer [00:01:04] And who lives in your household?

Speaker [00:01:07] Uh, my mom, my dad, my sister and my [1-5] siblings.

Interviewer [00:01:16] Both [1-5] siblings in total?

Speaker [00:01:18] Yes.

Interviewer [00:01:19] Okay. And what is your main source of income or your current job?

Speaker [00:01:26] [Occupation].

Interviewer [00:01:30] And how would you like me to address your partner? Girlfriend? Partner?

Speaker [00:01:34] Girlfriend

Interviewer [00:01:37] Okay.

Interviewer [00:01:38] All right. So, yeah. So these other questions are just going to be. Pretty general and also specifically to your relationship. So tell me about your love story. How did you guys meet?

Speaker [00:01:55] We met [Location] [Country]. I remember when I went, I went to [City], [Country], with a couple of my friends and I was, well, they're all trying to find, like a girl to ask for their [Social Media] and stuff like that.

Interviewer [00:02:10] Hmm.

Speaker [00:02:11] And I think I've seen [Name], and they told me they're like, because at first I wasn't supposed to. Like, I wasn't going to ask nobody. And I was like, All right, they're all scared to go up to a bunch of grass. I was like, Fine, I'll just go up there. And I went up to her and I didn't I wasn't planning to say nothing serious or nothing like that, especially because I didn't know where she lived, because everyone from around the world was the [Country], you know? Right. I didn't expect nothing crazy out of it. And then I started talking to her and and then I seen her again at the end of [City]. And then that's when I asked for her [Social Media]. And so I saw like, you know, I'm going to ask for it. And then we started talking from there.

Interviewer [00:02:49] Mm hmm.

Interviewer [00:02:50] So. What made you want to? What made you decide to talk to her in the first place?

Speaker [00:02:59] And. Well, just because my friends are being scared to go for [Social Media], so I just kind of just went up to her.

Interviewer [00:03:06] Yeah. I mean, like, I'm sure there were other girls, right?

Speaker [00:03:10] Right.

Interviewer [00:03:10] So something might have caught your attention or was it just like, like impulsive.

Speaker [00:03:15] It was just impulsive. I mean, I wasn't trying to get anything out of like, a relationship or another like that, but it just happened, you know?

Interviewer [00:03:21] Okay. So after that once you guys started talking, what made you stick around?

Speaker [00:03:29] Uh, a lot of people say is that, all of this is rather different and whatnot, but all the other girls I've talked to and stuff like that, they all like, I don't know, just something about [Partner's Name] just sticks out like her personality the way she is, how she treats other people as well, and not just herself.

Interviewer [00:03:51] Oh.

Interviewer [00:03:53] And yeah, so after you guys started talking and they... You seemed like that special thing about her. What was the one thing that made you decide to become official with her?

Speaker [00:04:08] That's a good question. I would say probably.... I don't know. I mean, honestly, I honestly don't know. These questions are... I've never thought of them before.

Interviewer [00:04:27] Yeah, that's fine. Let's see. Let me give you maybe some examples of my..

Interviewer [00:04:38] What you want to say. So, um, let's see. Maybe something that... also excuse the background noise. We have cleaning ladies in my house right now, so. So, some people might see specific qualities that they would want to have for... I don't know for a long term. There are other things there. It's maybe, you know their partner is useful in a way, I wouldn't want to say useful, but you know what I mean. Like useful for that specific, uhm moment in life, right? They're probably going through something or maybe. Or maybe it's just like, casual. Like, I like being with her and that's that. I don't. I don't see why we want to break up type of thing. Yeah. Anything else?

Speaker [00:05:30] I would say, her, how responsible she is and the way she treats everyone around her. She is never rude to anybody.

Interviewer [00:05:40] Mhm. Cool.

Interviewer [00:05:47] All right, so. Discussing your relationship, with that of your friends' relationship. How would you compare the quality of it?

Speaker [00:05:59] Wait, what do you mean?

Interviewer [00:06:01] So, like, how would you compare the type of relationship you have with [Partner's Name] and a lot of your friend's relationships?

Speaker [00:06:12] Uh. I don't know. I don't really. It's not that I don't have friends. I just don't. I don't go out somewhere. I don't really socialize with a lot of people. I just mainly focus on working and going out with my family or just checking. That's it.

Interviewer [00:06:37] Okay, so. Or what about those friends that you went to [City] with? Do you still talk to them?

Speaker [00:06:43] Uh, no. That was like [1-5] years, [1-5] years ago.

Interviewer [00:06:46] Oh, okay. All right. So. Okay. How many romantic partners have you had in the past?

Speaker [00:06:56] Just checking.

Interviewer [00:07:01] Hey. Okay.

Interviewer [00:07:08] So in general, what do you think makes a relationship high quality?

Speaker [00:07:14] I'd say. I would say communication.

Interviewer [00:07:20] Mhm.

Speaker [00:07:21] Yeah. I would say that's honestly the main thing. Without communication there's really no point of being in a relationship.

Interviewer [00:07:27] Mm hmm.

Interviewer [00:07:29] What about low quality?

Speaker [00:07:31] Or low quality? Would it be isolating yourself in anything that you're going through or anything like that? It's kind of hypocrite because I do that, but I need to try to work on that. Just like to not ball up your feelings and just dump to the side. You know, you have something to say. I say, speak your mind.

Interviewer [00:07:48] Mm hmm. Yeah. I agree. And. Hmm.

Interviewer [00:07:55] When would you say your relationship was of the highest quality or in terms of, how your relationship progressed? Were there situations where it was high quality and low quality?

Speaker [00:08:11] I wouldn't say there is no high quality because every day we're always learning something new about each other and we're always progressing to be better for each other in some way. And low quality, I would say at the beginning of our relationship, because I wasn't too sure if I wanted to actually commit or, you know, just talk. Just like, yes friends.

Interviewer [00:08:36] Mm hmm.

Interviewer [00:08:44] Okay for you, what do you think are the most important things in a relationship?

Speaker [00:08:55] Uh, the most important things in a relationship are obviously communication. Learning to understand one another and learning that everyone's brought up in different families and nobody's going to... How do you say nobody's going to always understand you the way you think you want them to understand you? I would say.

Interviewer [00:09:18] Like having different points of views.

Speaker [00:09:20] Yeah exactly.

Interviewer [00:09:22] Mhm.

Interviewer [00:09:27] And why do you think these are the most important things in a relationship? So you said communication, understanding, and also, like understanding the different points of views.

Speaker [00:09:43] I would say that the most important, because without those lack of communication, just in anything, not even just a relationship and any situation or anything like that, if you just automatically shut down in any situation you go through, then you know, it doesn't end well. And understanding each other's point of views, I would say it's important because not everyone grew up the same. So everyone has different childhood perspectives. I would say like. Yeah. I'd say everyone has some perspective on things.

Interviewer [00:10:16] Mm hmm.

Interviewer [00:10:17] So you said without communication, it doesn't end well. Can you specify or could you give examples?

Speaker [00:10:24] Uh, so say [Partner's Name] is going through something, and she goes through it by herself, and she's over there crying by herself, and she builds all this stuff up. And she did communicate with me all these. You should have some not I wouldn't say hatred, just some, like build up of sadness or depression or anxiety or anything that builds up and say when we go out somewhere to go eat or something like that, she's always going to feel some type of emptiness inside because she feels either sad about something that's going to happen and she feels like there's no one out there to listen to her. So I would say communication is key just for that reason as well.

Interviewer [00:11:03] Mhm. Yeah. So in general. Speaking more like love in general. What do you, what is love for you?

Speaker [00:11:18] I don't know.

Interviewer [00:11:21] It's a hard question.

Speaker [00:11:25] Um. I would say. I don't know. It's a hard question to answer?

Interviewer [00:11:35] Yeah. Take your time.

Speaker [00:11:40] Love is... Oh, I'm going to be here all day. What is?

Interviewer [00:11:56] I can give you some examples. So there's based on like what I've learned from what people say to me, love could be either a mental thing. So like specific thoughts, more like, of the logical side. Or maybe it's more emotional where you feel certain things.

Speaker [00:12:20] Mm hmm.

Interviewer [00:12:24] Or it could be more of a physical thing. You know, it doesn't necessarily have to be emotional. It could just be the way your body reacts. I don't know. It just depends on the person.

Speaker [00:12:37] Love, I would say I don't know how to answer. I don't even know how to.

Interviewer [00:12:44] So you don't even have to, like, You could just blurt out what you think.

Speaker [00:12:52] I feel like I feel like love is not necessarily an emotion. It's more of a commitment because... I don't know... I forgot I was saying something last time to [Partner's Name] too about this. I remember she asked me the same question.

Interviewer [00:13:06] Mm hmm.

Speaker [00:13:07] And I forget exactly what I said, but I said something. But after what I said.

Interviewer [00:13:13] You could give me, like, an idea of what you said.

Speaker [00:13:16] I said there's something like that that love is not always an emotion. There's also a commitment as well.

Interviewer [00:13:51] So you said it's not just an emotion, it's a commitment. Commitment in what way?

Speaker [00:14:00] In trying to be there for each other. And always, always, even when you're not feeling that you're a 100%, that you're always going to try to be there at 100% for each other.

Interviewer [00:14:18] Yeah. Well, if. If anything comes up throughout this, you let me know. But. Yeah, but that's completely fair. I completely agree. Because emotions change all the time. And, you could be feeling great. Like the honeymoon phase, right? It feels great in the beginning and then it just becomes more stable. There's no, not necessarily, there's the absence of excitement, it's just...it's not the way it used to be in the beginning. If you just don't have that excitement, then some people just think that you don't like them anymore and that's just enough to break up with them. But, you know, it is definitely a commitment because if you truly care about that person. It's like, okay, I'm not feeling my best right now and personally, but also about the situation. But I think I love them enough to be with them, you know, like, yeah, I completely agree with them. So how important is love in a relationship?

Speaker [00:15:32] Uh, I feel like. I feel like it's up there. Like this one. Probably one of the most important things, apart from obviously loyalty and communication and all the other stuff that comes with the relationship. But I wouldn't put it as number one.

Interviewer [00:15:51] Mm hmm. Mm hmm.

Interviewer [00:16:01] So, do you think...So you said, A maybe a, like a component of, Of a relationship or what you need for a relationship. Would you say that you're able to be in a relationship without love?

Speaker [00:16:21] Yeah, I think so.

Interviewer [00:16:25] What do you think would make a difference?

Speaker [00:16:29] Uh, I. Yeah, it were.

Interviewer [00:16:32] In what way?

Speaker [00:16:34] And the way you show it and express it like, [Partner's Name] is very like a lovey-dovey person, and she expresses it a lot, and in every way, whether it's gift giving or showing it physically or like, just like verbally and.eah. It shows a different than I show it obviously cause I don't always show it in an like verbally but through gifts and through other stuff like taking her out like dates, like to go out and eat and surprising her or showing her work to bring her like over drinks or [Coffee] or stuff like that.

Interviewer [00:17:24] Yeah. And. How do you know [Partner's Name] loves you?

Speaker [00:17:29] Um. I don't know. I guess that's the commitment you make to get into a relationship. Good question.

Interviewer [00:17:45] Anything more you would like to add to that or?

Speaker [00:17:49] I would say. I would say how verbal she is with telling me how much she loves me or how much she cares for me and go through every way through verbally or physically or through, I would say also gifts as well, or however expresses her love

Interviewer [00:18:13] And what would you say are some challenges in your relationship?

Speaker [00:18:20] Challenges. I would say putting God first and especially when we go through our little ups and downs, obviously that is not the end of the world. And then I always try to tell you that. But through the thick, we try to find or we try to pray through an Internet, or at least I try to hijack it to pray for the stuff that we got there just to better ourselves. And when we do, it gets better.

Interviewer [00:18:46] I love that. So in terms of these conflicts or challenges, do you and [Partner's Name] fight?

Speaker [00:18:55] No. No, we never do.

Interviewer [00:18:59] And again, like fight could be whatever you define it as, like physical or just vocal or anything. So you don't?

Speaker [00:19:09] No, we don't.

Interviewer [00:19:12] All right. And yeah. So what are other ways that you maintain your relationship? You mentioned communication.

Speaker [00:19:25] Hmm, I would say going out and just seeing each other at least two times, three times a week or however much we can. Because I know that sometimes when I get really busy with work, it's not that we distance ourselves. It's just I get caught up at work or doing my other side hustle, like [job]. Since I'm only here one time a week or one time every other week. And I would say it's difficult, not for me because I'm always busy, and I'm not always 100% thinking about the relationship all the time. But for [Partner's Name], because she always texts me saying no one can see you and kind of do this, and obviously there's a side of me, it's like, oh, and, I do need to stop and take some time off because I'm only [16-20]. Why am I stressing like I'm [26-30] years old and have some space? I would say that.

Interviewer [00:20:13] Yeah. And what do you say? That the relationship is good for you?

Speaker [00:20:21] Um, always having someone to be there for you and to talk to you because [Partner's Name] is very, I would say, a decent listener.

Interviewer [00:20:28] Hmm.

Speaker [00:20:28] You know, I have going on and stuff like that. And she's always, always giving me advice, whether it's for my work or with my family or anything like that. I go through my life or my side with my family, stuff like that.

Interviewer [00:20:51] So yeah. So in general, like, do you think the relationship is good for you?

Speaker [00:20:57] Yeah.

Interviewer [00:21:03] In terms of your soul, do you think the relationship itself changed you?

Speaker [00:21:11] Uh, yeah. I feel like she changed me.

Interviewer [00:21:15] In what way?

Speaker [00:21:18] I would say in being more understanding and I would say, how I say like.. Before. I was, you know, like nonchalant, but more like an airless kind of. And now I tend to, like, care how I speak to people because, before, I would always be blunt and be like, Oh, whatever. I would always think "whatever" about life. Like if it happens, it happens. And if it doesn't, it doesn't.

Speaker [00:21:43] You know? And with [Partner's Name], she kind of made me understand that.. Well, that's not the case. And most of the time.

Interviewer [00:21:51] Yeah. And what about [Partner's Name], do you think she changed during their relationship?

Speaker [00:21:59] Yeah, I think [Partner's Name] changed a lot more than I do.

Interviewer [00:22:02] In what ways?

Speaker [00:22:04] Um, I would say, like. I felt she actually changed, like as a person, like I've taught her to be more, um, I, I say I taught her to connect more with God and tell her how to... How to be understanding in certain situations, like if we can't see each other for a week, understand that it's not the end of the world with people out there dying and stuff. Right? Then you're over here stressing about me because I can't see you for [1-5] week or so. I would say that, like stuff like that. Like little stuff that to me is little. But to her, it's like the end of the world, you know?

Interviewer [00:22:44] Yeah. So this is a similar question, but is the person you were before the relationship the same as the person you are now?

Speaker [00:22:55] Okay, So some traits, yeah.

Interviewer [00:22:59] Mm hmm. Like what?

Speaker [00:23:03] Um, not careless, but, like. How do you say? Just like. Very like I put everything in God's hands. Like, it's like, I don't know, explain it. Like when I pray or stuff like that. I always put everything in God's hand. So I'm never really stressing over anything just like that. How I said earlier, if it happens, it happens. And if it doesn't, it doesn't. Oh well, move on. It doesn't stop anybody. So. Just keep, keep pushing through it.

Interviewer [00:23:33] Mm. And what about [Partner's Name]? Is she the same before the relationship or no?

Speaker [00:23:42] Uh, I don't know. I don't know.

Interviewer [00:23:48] Okay, that's fair. I'm just going to like mute myself when I'm not asking the questions because. Sorry, the background noise. But what do you say that you feel safe in the relationship and why do you say so?

Speaker [00:24:00] Oh, yeah? What do you mean? Like I feel safe?

Interviewer [00:24:03] Yeah. So like it could be however you define safe as emotionally, mentally, physically.

Speaker [00:24:13] Uh. Hmm. I don't know.

Interviewer [00:24:19] You don't know?

Speaker [00:24:21] That's a question I never thought of either. So, safe. How do you answer that? Yeah, I guess I feel safe.

Interviewer [00:24:33] Well, yeah. I mean, that's either no, because of conflicts or, I don't know. Like, I would prefer this. I don't know, it depends.

Speaker [00:24:44] Yeah, I think I feel safe. Like speaking to [Partner's Name] about certain situations that go on through my family and stuff like that.

Interviewer [00:24:56] So I'm going to share my screen for these three questions to show you, like a Likert scale. Hold on... I apologize for the background noise again, but yes, so for these I'm going to take notes on the side, but I'll be reading you the statement. And then from the scale you're going to rate how much it applies to you. So for the first one, let me. My partner usually really listens to me.

Speaker [00:25:49] Nine. Nine.

Interviewer [00:25:53] All right. And why do you say so?

Speaker [00:25:58] Because there's never a time where she doesn't ask me how my day is or where she doesn't interrupt me, when I'm speaking to her about if it's a serious situation or if it's like a joking around situation or if it's just how am I doing Now?

Interviewer [00:26:15] All right. And next one, My partner usually is responsive to my needs.

Speaker [00:26:24] I'd say nine.

Interviewer [00:26:31] And why do you say so?

Speaker [00:26:33] Uh, because.. There's been a lot of times where I get off of work late and I'm hungry and she [App] me food.

Interviewer [00:26:53] And last one. How satisfied are you with your relationship?

Speaker [00:27:00] Uh, completely satisfied.

Interviewer [00:27:06] And why do you say that?

Speaker [00:27:09] There's no... I haven't found any stuff that like, dislike about [Partner's Name] or that's like a, how do you say like a turn off or, you know, stuff like that.

Interviewer [00:27:25] That's good. All right. Let me stop sharing and then we're almost done with it. With the questions.

Interviewer [00:27:57] So this is more of a sensitive question. These are two questions, but feel free to tell me if you don't feel comfortable sharing. So I wanted to know more about your physical intimacy as a couple. Would you like to continue?

Speaker [00:28:11] Uh. Wait. Like. Like sexual or like just hugging and kissing or stuff like that.

Interviewer [00:28:18] Sexual.

Speaker [00:28:19] Uh, I hold off most questions. Okay.

Interviewer [00:28:26] All right. So. Yeah. So, moving on.

Interviewer [00:28:32] One more question. Did the relationship fulfill your expectations?

Speaker [00:28:38] Yes.

Interviewer [00:28:40] In what way?

Speaker [00:28:41] Actually, I want to say I didn't have any expectations, so. But I would say for the, for the most part, it's probably mostly everything I could ask for, honestly.

Interviewer [00:28:58] Oh. So yeah. So we were close to wrapping up and pretty much is going to summarize everything we've talked about. Again, to have the details is just like an overview. So in terms of your love story. Oh, okay. So you guys have been together for around [1-5] years and a couple of months. In terms of your love story, you met in [City]. It started off as nothing serious. It was impulsive. But as the relationship started to progress, you kind of, you found traits. That's the girl. And you like how she treats other people.

Interviewer [00:29:38] And how responsible she is. And so you guys became official after that. In terms of what makes the relationship high quality, you said communication. And what makes a relationship a low quality is isolating yourself. You said that there's always something to learn and making sure that you're being better for each other. In terms of like a situation where or a time where the relationship was of low quality, was when you weren't sure, you weren't sure if you wanted to commit. And the most important thing in a relationship, you said, is our communication. Understanding and understanding the different point of views such as like, being brought up in a different family. And you said that without communication it doesn't end well. Like you could build up depression and such.

Interviewer [00:30:5] It's. Not good to... It's better to communicate.

Interviewer [00:31:08] For the question, what is love? You said that love is not just an emotion. It's a commitment. Trying to be there for each other. And no matter what you're feeling, either if you're feeling 100% or not. You said that love is, is one of the most important things in a relationship but not the number one thing

Interviewer [00:31:32] That goes with loyalty and communication. You know that, you know, that [Partner's Name] loves you because she, first off, made a commitment to be in a relationship with you. And also how verbal she is by saying like, I love you, also physically and also like gifts

Interviewer [00:31:54] Some challenges or like putting God first. And there really aren't any fights. Some other ways that you maintain your relationship is going out, seeing each other at least 2 or 3 times a week. You said that the relationship is good for you. You know she's there for you. She's always there for you. And she gives you advice on family or personal issues. You said that the relationship did change. You made you more understanding. And in terms of [Partner's Name], you're not sure? You said, Yeah, you feel safe in the relationship because you're able to talk about your family issues. For the Likert scale, for "my partner usually really listens to me." You read it at a nine.

Interviewer [00:32:56] On my partner usually is responsive to my needs, you said 9 as well

Interviewer [00:33:01] Oh, for "listens" is because she listens to you in every situation and then for "needs", you said because she doordashes your food after having a long shift.

Interviewer [00:33:22] For how satisfied are you with your relationship? You said completely satisfied because you haven't really found stuff that would be a turn off or to dislike about her.

Interviewer [00:33:37] Yeah, that's pretty much it. Is there anything else you'd like to add?

Speaker [00:33:42] No, that's summarized at all.

Interviewer [00:33:45] All right. So thank you so much. Now, before we end, I want to talk to you about how we handle the data as a research project. We want to be as ethically transparent as possible. And so I wanted to know more about which data sharing option you're most comfortable with. So we have two different options. The first option is that the transcript portions can be shared, none of which can be identified for you. So the de-identified transcript can also be read by other researchers. The other option is, you know, if you were being, if you were feeling bolder, the whole transcript can be shared with the removal of sensitive and overly identifying details. So it will be anonymous, although in this option there is a very, very minimal chance that someone who knows you very well can piece together the details in the transcript and narrowed down among their colleagues they believe it is. Although again, no sensitive information will be shared. So of these two options, which one are you most comfortable with?

Speaker [00:34:57] Uh, probably the first one.

Interviewer [00:35:07] So thank you so much again for participating in the study. I would like to let you know that this is also being done in the Philippines, Brazil, Netherlands, France and all over the US. And for this study to be successful, there's also one more thing. Well. Well, actually, no, that's. Yeah, that's pretty much it. Do you have any questions for me?

Speaker [00:35:32] Uh, no, that's all.

Interviewer [00:35:33] All right. Just remind me if you sign the...I'm trying to look at [Partner's Name]'s email. Were you able to sign the form, the consent form?

Speaker [00:35:51] Consent form?

Interviewer [00:35:57] Let me or give me your email right now and I'll send you a copy of the consent form and then send it to me like. Hopefully, like right now.

Speaker [00:36:09] Okay. And it works.

Interviewer [00:36:12] What's your email?

Speaker [00:36:14] [Name]. Or is it the one who texted me?

Interviewer [00:36:22] Wait, probably. Honestly, for like a specific time, I have my messages, my messages get deleted. So. Yeah. Did you send it back to me?

Speaker [00:36:37] Uh, no, I haven't.

Interviewer [00:36:38] Okay. Could you sign it right now and then text it to me?

Speaker [00:36:43] Oh, yeah. I'll send it right now, I'll edit it.

Interviewer [00:36:49] I think you could just download it and then in photos like. I use the marker thing.

Speaker [00:36:57] Try. Well, can I screenshot it?

Interviewer [00:37:46] Yeah.

Speaker [00:37:48] Okay. I'll do that. I can still. I can say yes. I am comfortable with this data sharing option below. Now you're free to change just out of the interview before transcript break. So sensitive these automation faster portions can be shared with no caution should be tracked back to me. (reading the consent form)

Speaker [00:39:13] Was it that one I chose?

Interviewer [00:39:16] If it's the first one, yeah

Speaker [00:39:19] The first one says the full transcript except the sensitive detail.

Interviewer [00:39:25] Yeah, it's switched. Yeah. So if you choose the second one in the document, then that's the first option that I, that you chose in this recording.

Speaker [00:39:37] Okay. Yeah. So it is. Yeah.

Interviewer [00:39:41] All right.

Speaker [00:40:40] Sorry, it's messy but hopefully that works. It's funny because I'm doing it on the phone. It's kind of hard to work.

Interviewer [00:40:52] Yeah, no, that works. All right. So that's pretty much it. That concludes our interview. And I'll be letting [Name], [Partner's Name]'s professor, know that the interview has been fully completed. Yeah. Do you have any questions again?

Speaker [00:41:13] Well, no, that's it.

Interviewer [00:41:14] All right. Thank you. And have a good day.

Speaker [00:41:16] All right.

Speaker [00:41:17] Bye bye.
