

Speaker 1 [00:00:00] All right. And just for the sake of the recording, I asked you again, is it fine if I start recording?

Speaker 2 [00:00:08] Yes.

Speaker 1 [00:00:08] All right.

Speaker 2 [00:00:09] So.

Speaker 1 [00:00:11] So, good morning. Thank you again for participating in this interview. As mentioned over email, we want to know more about your views on romantic relationships, and we believe your experience and perspective would bring much to the project. So like at the start of this whole interview, I would just ask you some like, demographic questions and then we can go right ahead to kind of understand your views on romantic relationships. So how old are you?

Speaker 2 [00:00:47] I'm [16-20]. I'm about to be [16-20].

Speaker 1 [00:00:55] And how long have you been together with your partner?

Speaker 2 [00:00:59] About [1-5] year and [1-5] months. But...

Speaker 1 [00:01:07] And do you guys have children?

Speaker 2 [00:01:10] No.

Speaker 1 [00:01:12] And who lives in your household? Currently?

Speaker 2 [00:01:16] In my household. Currently it's just my parents and I.

Speaker 1 [00:01:27] And what is your main source of income and or your current job?

Speaker 2 [00:01:32] Uh, I'm currently unemployed and [occupation].

Speaker 1 [00:01:42] All right. And how would you like me to just your partner.

Speaker 2 [00:01:45] Your boyfriend?

Speaker 1 [00:01:48] Partner, lover by their name?

Speaker 2 [00:01:53] Is his name. [Partner's Name]. [Partner's Name]? Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:01:59] All right, so. Yeah. So from now on, it's just. I'll just be taking notes on the side and I'll just be listening. So. Tell me about your love story.

Speaker 2 [00:02:11] Uh huh. Um, is say us we notice, or how is that? So we've known each other for 6-10] years. Mhm.

Speaker 2: He moved to this country when he was younger, and so we met. And it's his first day of school in [grade level]. We've always like, I guess, kind of like known each other but never really talked. We hung out with like, some of the same people. And then one day, one day was just different. Like for, like I guess noticed him. Mhm. Now it's like, oh he's kind of cute. Interesting. So like, I had a little crush for a while. And then the. I just kind of. I was. Kind of afraid of like, rejections. I kind of never, like, took any action upon it, but. Then, like, I was, I would talk to my friend about it. And I have we have a lot of close friends or that are the same, like the same circle of friends. And he played [sport] and so they would play with him for the school team. And one day I was just like after like a couple of months and just talking to them about it, they're like, Oh, I think he likes me too. And I was like, I don't know. And they would ask him questions like, Oh my, because I would go to the [sport] games to help to support and. They asked him once. They're like, Oh, [Partner's Name], I see how you look. And not only during the game, what's going on with that? And they had told me that he just, like laughed at them and kind of like ignore the question. Mhm. And me, I was like. Like I was like kind of a little child, like delusional. But I was like, oh when he is and. He was very quiet, like very like kept himself person so then would try to talk to Mr. Conversation would be. Like your answer very simply. Yeah. Yeah. And then I finally, at the end of one of the games and my cousin's boyfriend and I and her and me, we went up to him to congratulate him. And he, like, a boyfriend, was funny. Like, you know what I'm tired of? This is like, word for word. He was like you. You took right now, like when you work in a gym full of so many people. And I was just like him and I both really, really shy. So you're like, oh, my gosh. I ended up having to like, I guess, take the first step and was like, Hey, [Partner's Name], would you like to go talk outside my privacy? Yeah, we ended up we went out and I remember I was so nervous the whole time. I was just like, laughing and, like, shaking and I couldn't get any words. And I was like, But I'm getting the second one. And there's like. And then I finally was like, Calm down a little bit to compose myself. I told him I was like, I've been interested in you for a while and I want to get to know you better and I would like for you to do same. And he was like, I do too. And then that was like fireworks. I was like, Oh my gosh, I guess this is happening too. So yeah, So we talked for a little bit and then he had to go back in for like they do like a ritual at the end of the game for the team. And so we went back in and we were like sending you to there. And then I finally I was like, Oh, can I have your number? You know, like, yeah. And then he put it in the phone and then they ended up having like a team meeting. So my cousin who was there with me at the time, we went outside and just waited there because her boyfriend was also in there. So she went to wait for him. And once everyone came out and came out, I didn't have a ride back home. And he drives. So I remember I was like, oh my, can I can you give me a ride home? And I was like. And he was like, Yeah. But he was like, Yeah, that's mine. Like, kind of crazy because. Yeah. And so then I remember when we were walking to the car, like a lot of our friends and like, cheesiness, like, Oh, good Lord. Oh. And I was just like, oh, my gosh. Because, I mean, I don't really like attention like that. We were just laughing about it. Mhm. And then I remember. On while in the car. He, like his phone, automatically plays music. And there is one song that played. It's a Filipino song, [Title]. And now it's like a romance song. And now we call that our song because it was the first song I played while we were together, and it was like perfect for the moment. Oh, yeah. And I was like, trying to get, like, someone stab him, like trying to get to know him better. But he is so shy that he was like. I was like, so shocked in the moment because I asked him that after, like once we were already together and he said that his brain was not working at all. And he told have he responds because of how excited he was and like just shocked that that would happen. I'm also his first ever, like talking state or relationship and anything. So it's like, oh, big. Yeah, a big difference for him. We spent about. A month talking. And then, like he told his parents. I told my parents about him. I. It was different because I knew that there was something different about him than other guys I had talked to. Like whenever I talked to them and started to get serious. It always felt like if I were to get with them. A It would be like I'm missing out on someone on the future. Mhm. Like, does that make sense?

Speaker 1 [00:09:06] I think so.

Speaker 2 [00:09:07] Yeah. Like I'd be missing out on something. If I were to go with them. But with him, it was different. It felt like complete. Like I wasn't missing anything. If anything, I wanted to. I was complete with him. Mhm. Yeah. And. Finally, within the second week of summer, we were like hanging out, like for a couple of days in a row and. We went to go get food. Um, it was like kind of. It was like, I guess like this kind of, like, special day. I, like, felt like something was different about it. And we went to go. Get food. And then we went to the beach to eat there. And there's like a little pier at the beach. And it was like, Oh, do you wanna go over there? Looks like the same as those other people. I was like, okay, that's fine. But in my head I was like, He's going to ask me how it is. And he. Has a feeling already. So we went on to like darker and there were so many people there. We like, walked there and we're just watching like the city lights from the ocean and. I was like, we're like. Like hugging or holding each other. Like my head on his chest and like him, his arms over me, like just watching the view. And I heard his heart beating so fast. So I looked over him and was like, Why? You know, it's like, what's going on? And it was like, I have a very important question that I need to answer right now. And I was like, Oh, what is it? And he was like, he like, pulls out his phone in like an elementary on like a piece of paper. You like, right? Like, Oh, do you want to be my girlfriend? Yes or no? Oh, yeah. It was like that. This phone is really cute to me because he's like, kind of like a dork in a way. Like, that's why I like to call him. And he was like, oh, my gosh. And so I was like, Let me see. Let me think about it. And I grabbed it and. So I'm [Nationality]. I'm teaching him spreadsheets, [Language]. So instead of like, yes, it is safe and I give a lecture and they will like us and. And then I like. Okay, that's my turn to surprise you. And I like coated eyes and, like, kiss. And then I sent them together, and it was like they just hanging out, and it was like, probably, like, one of my best memories after that. So we finally we had to tell his. His aunt had seen me and asked if he's like, Oh, is it official yet? And he told her that. I guess I actually asked her out over. And then I had to tell my parents. And we just I don't know. We have like a sort of. Like. Connection that I never had with anyone else. We. No matter how hard things go, we're always there for each other. And we said breakup is not an option. Brother works is a problem. And like, talk about the loss. It's us against the problem, not us against each other. Mm hmm. Mm hmm. I don't know. I don't really know what else to say. But yeah, I guess that's like her story now. What's the super.

Speaker 1 [00:13:02] Q?

Speaker 2 [00:13:04] Yeah, we're like a little like, I guess like long distance. Like I go to San Jose and he goes to a university here back home. Mhm. So I think also it's like one thing that's different is he actually like makes effort to go out there and see me like at least once a month and then like do homework the other just like spend the day. Yeah. Um. So cool. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:13:40] So. All right.

Speaker 2 [00:13:44] Just look over my note.

Speaker 1 [00:13:53] Yes. So initially you said the in the [grade level], if I understood correctly, you started to notice him.

Speaker 2 [00:14:01] No, no, no. In the [grade level], we met.

Speaker 1 [00:14:06] Okay.

Speaker 2 [00:14:07] And then I started to notice him. Like. Beginning my junior high school. Sorry. Okay. Yes.

Speaker 1 [00:14:20] And what you just reflecting back on that moment, what do you think caught your attention?

Speaker 2 [00:14:28] Um. Probably how different she was. I don't know. It just something like. It was kind of like a out of nowhere thing. It's just like one day I just like. [Name]. I was like, Oh, like he's cute. And he's very different from like a lot like 90% of the guys at our old high school. It's just like. Very calm, very quiet. Didn't really say much. And also, it was like kind of like a he was mysterious, I guess. And that commitment in. Oh like I want to know more. Mhm. Yeah. All right. And for.

Speaker 1 [00:15:24] Oh, yeah. And then you explained or you described how there was something different about him, like later on. There you feel like. Or with other relationships that you felt like something was missing?

Speaker 2 [00:15:41] Yeah. Um.

Speaker 1 [00:15:43] Yeah. So if you've, like, done some, like, self-reflection on the, on the situation to, um. What do you think? Was the missing thing that he had that.

Speaker 2 [00:15:57] Other.

Speaker 1 [00:15:58] Guys didn't.

Speaker 2 [00:16:02] I think it was just like a connection. Like I didn't really have a connection with them like I do with [Partner's Name]. Mhm. Yeah. I don't know. It's just. I don't think there was something more that was like within them. Mhm. And more probably something that was like. With me because I also I have like I had like stopped by and I was like, you know, stop looking for religion or like, you know, like I don't want isn't going to focus on myself, love myself first. And I, I found or I found him like we started talking like, once I was. I guess. Like. Better heeled.

Speaker 1 [00:16:48] Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:16:49] Yeah. I finally have peace within myself. Mm. And he helped us bring that out and like heal in wounds that he didn't even know. Mhm.

Speaker 1 [00:17:09] Great. All right. So. Yeah. So you did talk about kind of like the quality of your relationship. So in terms of the relationship of that of your friends, comparing that to your relationship with [Partner's Name]. What what is how do you describe the quality of that comparison?

Speaker 2 [00:17:35] Um, I would say it's not really that different. He's like a best friend and lover in one. And terms, I feel like. Probably because we're like in a relationship together. I feel like much closer to tell them more personal things. But besides that, it's not that. Different from a friendship. Then. Like, I guess. Like. The different feeling of love that are still towards him is the commitment to a friend. Mhm.

Speaker 1 [00:18:14] Okay. Yeah. But also like in terms of comparing the the relationship of your friends, like a female friend who has a relationship with some guy and just seen that dynamic how.

Speaker 2 [00:18:31] Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:18:32] Yeah. What is that difference between their relationship and yours that you've seen. Like specifically.

Speaker 2 [00:18:44] Quality. Um, yeah, I'm trying to. I'm trying to think back because most of my friends were guys.

Speaker 1 [00:18:53] Okay.

Speaker 2 [00:18:54] Yeah. So most of them weren't like, in relationships. Oh, like. I've. Comparing, like to like like my cousin who's in a relationship who I also consider, like, my best friend. I don't really see like a difference. And I compare her a nice relationship we both like have. Based on the same boyfriend, I guess I like both. Really respectful, loving, kind. Yeah, there's I've never really seen, like, a big difference. Okay. Well, actually, I'm sorry. I really think that this something I've never had to think about. No problem.

Speaker 1 [00:19:48] Take your.

Speaker 2 [00:19:48] Time. Um. Well, I have seen some friends who went through like, bad relationships, like a guy who didn't really, like, listened to her, like, emotional or like mental needs and said he liked us or if she like, I guess, like the one thing girls would say is like flowers. Like they have to like, well, I guess kind of like beg the boyfriend for flowers or like to do nice things, which is something that he should want to do. Like, I've seen them like I heard them like, complain about that and some less different. It's more he does things because he wants to either I've never had to beg him to do something nice or anything. He kind of just wanted to out of like glove in his heart. Yeah. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:20:55] That's.

Speaker 2 [00:20:55] That's good. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:21:02] And you talked a little bit about, like the other guys that you've been with. How many romantic partners have you had in the past?

Speaker 2 [00:21:15] Zero. They never went past the talking stage because I never. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:21:24] And how many would you say have you had in the talking phase?

Speaker 2 [00:21:33] Like [1-5] or [1-5]. Okay. Right. And.

Speaker 1 [00:21:43] I guess, like, even though it's, it's not like a, um, an official type of relationship, but it is some sort of relationship. I guess I could also frame a question of how would you compare the quality of that type of relationship with that of you and [Partner's Name]'s relation?

Speaker 2 [00:22:05] Like the talking like that?

Speaker 1 [00:22:08] Yeah, like the quality of it, because talking stages can be defined. Differently from person to person, right?

Speaker 2 [00:22:18] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:22:18] Just the overall quality of it's.

Speaker 2 [00:22:21] Um. I think it was. There are more like. I don't know. Like, not really. Like I feel like usually on target trying to get to know the other person. Mhm. But those, they weren't like as open or honest about what they wanted. Like there was kind of like I guess other girls in the picture and. Like it was like basically like home, you know? Yeah. Like with [Partner's Name], who was very, like. Like honest from the beginning. Told me what he wanted. Mhm. I like out of that like knew that he want to pursue something more. Had it I guess like goal in mind. Mhm. Like much better than the previous one.

Speaker 1 [00:23:24] Yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:23:25] Does that answer the question. Yeah, definitely.

Speaker 1 [00:23:29] And. Just trying to understand conceptually what you think about relationships in general. What makes a relationship high quality?

Speaker 2 [00:23:42] For sure, having open communication for not only how communication could you can communicate as much as you want, but also understanding the other person and what they're saying and how they feel about our situation. Also, just being there for each other, not only in the lowest moment, but also in the highest moments, always being there like supporter in anything. Knowing what's good and bad and sometimes having to let them know like, hey, this is not good. Maybe don't do this. Like, just look like looking out for them. [Name]. Just like. Loving each other and not just like. Like I just love each other, like physically, emotionally and mentally. Mhm. Because some relations I feel like don't always have all three. Mhm. Um. I think that. And I would like loyalty. Yeah, definitely.

Speaker 1 [00:24:58] And what are the most important things in a relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:25:10] Was it not like the same as the past of the before question? Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:25:13] Well, you I mean, you go repeat yourself.

Speaker 2 [00:25:16] Yeah. This I say the same like open communication, understanding each other and how they feel being supportive. Mhm. And like loving each other and say. Okay. Yeah. And then. Oh, and also, like, understanding each other's love languages. That's that's something that can be overlooked.

Speaker 1 [00:25:48] Yeah, definitely. I completely agree with you. And what would you say makes a relationship low quality?

Speaker 2 [00:25:57] Um. Be, like, toxic. What? I said, like, not communicating with each other, how you feel or think about, like. Or like, a lot of times, like, if you're overthinking, and if you don't say that to each other, then that's like eating you. Sorry. Someone is knocking at the door.

Speaker 1 [00:26:22] Oh, no.

Speaker 2 [00:26:22] Problem. I'll be right back. Yeah. Okay. Sorry. No problem.

Speaker 1 [00:27:24] All right. So let's see.

Speaker 2 [00:27:27] Here.

Speaker 1 [00:27:39] Yeah. So you mentioned loving each other, right?

Speaker 2 [00:27:42] Mm hmm.

Speaker 1 [00:27:42] For you. What is.

Speaker 2 [00:27:44] Love? Um. I guess that is a hard question to answer.

Speaker 1 [00:27:58] It definitely is.

Speaker 2 [00:27:59] Yeah. How do you explain like it's really for. I think love is. Wanting to see that person. Grow and better themselves. And also wanting to help fight their battles with them. Mhm. Like what they're like below. And I think that's the really hard to answer.

Speaker 1 [00:28:50] Yeah, that.

Speaker 2 [00:28:52] That's.

Speaker 1 [00:28:52] That's a great definition. And you consistently emphasize that love is very important in the relationship. But how important do you think love is in a relationship? Do you think people can be in a relationship without love?

Speaker 2 [00:29:09] Maybe, or I think that they can definitely get into a relationship. Well, not loving each other, but will eventually. Start to love each other, especially like hormonally because I'm in psychology.

Speaker 1 [00:29:28] So yeah.

Speaker 2 [00:29:30] You learned that. So especially the females will eventually. Start to fall in love. Mhm. So you can definitely start out in a relationship, not in love but then. End up having at least a little bit of love for each other. I mean, just like, caring for them. Just like one way of loving someone. Mm hmm.

Speaker 1 [00:30:06] And kind of like reflecting on. On the [Partner's Name] here. How do you know [Partner's Name] loves you?

Speaker 2 [00:30:19] I think it's by his actions and also by him always being there for me when I'm in my lowest. He'll he's always there to come for me. And if I'm over thinking, he's there too, like. Like, diffuse those thoughts to put me at ease. Mhm. Um. And then also it's also she has learned my love languages and loves me. All right? It's like, yeah, love me like the way I feel most loved by like. Being there for me. Like remembering little things. Giving me flowers. Like stuff like that.

Speaker 1 [00:31:14] And how did he learn your love languages?

Speaker 2 [00:31:20] I don't see.

Speaker 1 [00:31:21] How to because like, based on my experience and that of my friends as well, like, you know, it takes time. It's different for people like they see one thing and it's like, okay, she probably. Only likes gifts, but in reality it's more of like ex of service or.

Speaker 2 [00:31:40] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:31:42] And. How did how did more kind of.

Speaker 2 [00:31:49] I don't know. I think I know what you're trying to say. Yeah. I kind of just, like, straight up told him, like, I'm very straight up. And also his more, like, quiet. So I was gonna have to speak. And I am also, like, very serious person. So I pulled up like a little language quiz, like, here, let me see your living quarters the next door. And then I told him what mine were like. I just told him. But there are some things I've noticed. He kind of just like. Picked up along the way and kind of just like paid attention to it and noticed. And I guess that's another reason why I know he loves me. Like he just kind of like, noticed that I like picked it up. Mhm. Yeah. But I just like straight up told him what they were.

Speaker 1 [00:32:42] And do you remember his reaction to that.

Speaker 2 [00:32:46] Um, he was kind of just like, was kind of like that.

Speaker 1 [00:32:52] Is he also like student?

Speaker 2 [00:32:54] No, he's a [program]. Oh, yes. That's cool. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:33:00] And yeah, so for this conflict section, what would you say are some challenges that you face in your relationship with work?

Speaker 2 [00:33:17] Mhm. I'd say like one day would be like the physical, like long distance. Right. That can definitely put a strain on a relationship. Mhm. I know, I've noticed in the knee when I started to miss him instead of like showing him in like a passive way, I get a little. Like aggressive and say push. I try nuttin but a thing like that to stay on it. And probably like if we get into a little of an agreement, we can be kind of petty about it and we'll talk about or kind of give like a silent treatment. And then eventually we do talk about it. It's just initially we're kind of just. Closed up. I think just besides those two, we don't really. Like nothing else. And.

Speaker 1 [00:34:22] Yeah. So you said aggressive. Can you elaborate on that?

Speaker 2 [00:34:26] Like aggressive, but kind of just like I have, like, a little attitude. Okay. Yeah. And like, those were attitude.

Speaker 1 [00:34:38] Okay. So yeah, you mentioned disagreements. How do you guys resolve those disagreements?

Speaker 2 [00:34:46] By communicating like there's one I can think of that we had and. I remember. We. We hung out together and went somewhere. We went to the beach and just talked about it. Talked about how how that made us feel, what we were thinking about it. Why that happened. And like [Name] thought when that happened and just understood where the other person was coming from, why they said what they said. And obviously it's just talking about communicating, understanding how the other person felt and what they were saying. Mm hmm. Love that. And.

Speaker 1 [00:35:35] How often would you say these like this agreement or quote unquote fight happen?

Speaker 2 [00:35:44] Very rare. Not that often. Like. I don't know. Maybe every couple months. Mm hmm. They're not very often. We usually just like talk about things before they get to that level. Mhm.

Speaker 1 [00:36:15] And what are just like putting into a category. What are these clinical fights mainly about?

Speaker 2 [00:36:27] Makes me like him wanting something good for me and me being petty about it. And petty about it. And just like not. One thing that like, even though I know like it's something that's like because usually he does things and it's like the good for me. Mhm. And I'm like, no I don't want that. Like as if it's just me being petty. And taking into consideration why he's saying what he's saying. All right.

Speaker 1 [00:37:08] And yeah, so what are other ways that you maintain your relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:37:15] Um. Bye, because we're like a long distance. We face time every night and talk about, like, how our day was like or even if we're just like, sitting there and silent, like playing a game with each other, it still feels like we're together. And I think that helps lessen the strain from being so far from each other and not being able to be there physically. So we'll still be there for each other, like emotionally and mentally. And also just like. Well, I can't remember the question again.

Speaker 1 [00:38:00] Yeah. What are other ways that you maintain your relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:38:03] Yeah. Yeah, I like like that. And also just like communicating with each other, trying to when I do come back home, trying to see each other as often as possible or like, spending spending time with each other's family. Mhm. Um. Yeah. It is like being there for each other. Mm hmm.

Speaker 1 [00:38:33] Yeah. And what do you say? That this relationship in general is good for you?

Speaker 2 [00:38:40] Yes. And I think it's very good.

Speaker 1 [00:38:46] What do you say? So.

Speaker 2 [00:38:49] I feel like you've brought out a better person within me. Mm. I'm more open to love, which is something I was scared of before I went to sleep. Sorry. I thought this was dirty with the. Um. Also. Um. Yeah. He's like a better person than me. I feel like I have been much happier and. I don't know. I guess you become a better person from that. Angry with the world. And say you.

Speaker 1 [00:39:44] Does an example come to mind?

Speaker 2 [00:39:47] Um. I. Yes. Yes. I have, like a rocky relationship with my mom. Mhm. But I feel like since being with him, he's also helped me heal like those wounds. So I've started to be more loving, more I, like, communicate more with her. And just like. Started building a better relationship with her? Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:40:33] Yeah. And this is kind of like this echoes this next question, but do you think the relationship change there?

Speaker 2 [00:40:40] Um. Yes, in a good way.

Speaker 1 [00:40:49] And what about your.

Speaker 2 [00:40:50] What about [Partner's Name]?

Speaker 1 [00:40:52] Do you think he changed in the relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:41:01] I think so. He's definitely more open with things than he used to.

Speaker 1 [00:41:13] What type of things?

Speaker 2 [00:41:15] Like. Like just being open, I guess, more with his thoughts and feelings because he has like someone to talk to now, I'd say yeah. Oh. And.

Speaker 1 [00:41:34] This is slightly different, but what do you say? The. The person you were before. Their relationship is the same person you're in now.

Speaker 2 [00:41:52] And say. Yes and no. Some qualities? Yes. And then others? No.

Speaker 1 [00:42:12] Yes. Please excuse the background noise we have. I think we heard like a plumber or something.

Speaker 2 [00:42:21] I think so.

Speaker 1 [00:42:25] Yeah. And what about your. What about [Partner's Name]? Do you think he's the same as before the relationship as you are now?

Speaker 2 [00:42:37] I'm not sure. I am going to say no. Okay. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:42:48] And what? What do.

Speaker 2 [00:42:49] You.

Speaker 1 [00:42:51] Why were you first? Unsure. And. And then you decided no.

Speaker 2 [00:42:55] Yeah. I think back about how. He. Because I'm trying to think like. Like his personal life. Mm hmm. Like, I don't really, like, know. Like, because I was in there, see, So I don't really know how he was. I can only, like, from what he said. So that's like, I think, like, back on that.

Speaker 1 [00:43:18] Yeah. Okay.

Speaker 2 [00:43:19] Yeah. Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:43:35] And do you feel safe in the relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:43:37] Yes.

Speaker 1 [00:43:42] And why is that? Like, what.

Speaker 2 [00:43:44] Type of safety do you feel? Um. Like as like the safe all around, like, emotionally, mentally and physically. Um. I. I just know he wouldn't ever do anything to harm me. Mhm. Um. He's a very passive person as well. Yeah. He just would never raise his voice or like, a fist or something. Oh, all right.

Speaker 1 [00:44:32] So for this one, I'm going to share my screen.

Speaker 2 [00:44:39] And then. Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:44:56] All right. So for the first one, for these couple of questions, I think it's just like three or something. It's a girl. So my partner usually really listens to me. And you just choose a couple here and I'll take it. I'll take some notes on the side. So how would you rate the.

Speaker 2 [00:45:18] Like an 8.5.

Speaker 1 [00:45:24] All right. And why Why an 8.5 and not like a seven?

Speaker 2 [00:45:33] Cause I saw the.

Speaker 1 [00:45:35] I should say.

Speaker 2 [00:45:37] I feel like, uh. Pretty much every thing I say, like you listen to just a couple of these. Like there's like preoccupied or something or has something else on his mind and he's not fully like take in what I'm saying. But for the most part, like 90%, 95% of the time he does listen. Mhm.

Speaker 1 [00:46:09] All right.

Speaker 2 [00:46:09] Next one.

Speaker 1 [00:46:12] My partner usually is responsive to my needs.

Speaker 2 [00:46:22] It's a seven and a half.

Speaker 1 [00:46:32] And why not a seven?

Speaker 2 [00:46:36] Um, because. There are like some needs that he is responsive to them, but he can't always be responsive to all of them. Like if it's like maybe I'm feeling alone and crave physical touch, but we're far from each other. He can't like. Help with that need or a craving for food or something. He can respond to those the like when we're together or most need. Like usually it's just like communication. That's the only like I guess major need. He responds there for that. Mhm.

Speaker 1 [00:47:23] Okay. And overall, how satisfied are you with your relationship?

Speaker 2 [00:47:28] Completely satisfied.

Speaker 1 [00:47:32] And why do you say so?

Speaker 2 [00:47:35] Um. Thinking back in the relationship, there's nothing that I would. Like pretty much like really complain about. Mhm. Like I'd say like everything is like is up to my standards. Okay. Or the, um. Yeah. Yeah. Uh, no, there's, like, nothing I feel like is missing. Okay. All right. That's. Oh.

Speaker 1 [00:48:20] And how would you rate your weight?

Speaker 2 [00:48:23] So same one.

Speaker 1 [00:48:24] Okay. Sharing. And then continue with just these last couple of questions.

Speaker 2 [00:48:35] All right. And.

Speaker 1 [00:48:54] All right. So I have two questions and it might be sensitive, so feel free to let me know if you don't want to answer these two questions. So.

Speaker 2 [00:49:07] Um.

Speaker 1 [00:49:08] I also wanted to know more about your physical intimacy as a couple. Would you like to continue?

Speaker 2 [00:49:14] Um. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [00:49:17] Okay. These days, how often do you guys have sex?

Speaker 2 [00:49:22] Um. Like, I guess like when we see each other, we just one like. Couple times a month. Okay.

Speaker 1 [00:49:41] And how satisfied are you with your sex life?

Speaker 2 [00:49:44] I am satisfied.

Speaker 1 [00:49:50] And what do you say? So.

Speaker 2 [00:49:52] Um, I'd say, like, you really, like, listens to what I like, and we'll try best to. Like I say. Like, do what I like. Mm hmm. Yeah. Okay, great.

Speaker 1 [00:50:12] All right, So moving on.

Speaker 2 [00:50:16] I answer that question whole.

Speaker 1 [00:50:22] Yeah, and I think you mentioned that before, but did the relationship overall fulfill your expectations?

Speaker 2 [00:50:30] Yeah, it passed my expectations. I don't say.

Speaker 1 [00:50:38] All right. So we are close to wrapping up. And I'm pretty much just going to summarize everything that we've talked about. So your [16-20] year old was [16-20] years old. You've been together [1-5] year and [1-5] months. No children. You live with your parents. You're unemployed, but also a [occupation]. So in terms of your love story, again, this is just like a summary. I have more details in here. You've known each other for [6-10] years. So from [grade level], junior year, that's when you started to notice [Partner's Name] And. And what stood out was his calm and mysterious demeanor. Thanks to your cousin's boyfriend. You were able to confess to him and he felt the same. You exchange contact information then.

Speaker 2 [00:51:56] And then you.

Speaker 1 [00:51:58] Hung out. And then that's when it became official. And. Yeah. So you told your parents, like, about each other? And you did mention that something was different about him and that.

Speaker 2 [00:52:17] Was.

Speaker 1 [00:52:18] A specific like a stronger connection with him compared to in any other talk stages.

Speaker 2 [00:52:26] Mm hmm.

Speaker 1 [00:52:29] Overall, the quality between that of you and [Partner's Name]'s relationship and that of your friends, you said that [Partner's Name] is definitely a best friend and a lover. And for your friend's relationship, there isn't much of a difference. Romantic partners in the past. Oh, you said zero, but you have [1-5] to [1-5] talking stages. And the quality between the talking stage and your current relationship is that it wasn't open or honest. What makes a relationship high quality is open communication. Understanding each other. Specifically like feelings and such. Being there for each other in any moment. Room for improvement and definitely loving each other, both physically, mentally, physically, emotionally, and also loyalty. And what makes a relationship low Quality is pretty much the opposite of those. The most important things in a relationship are those.

Speaker 2 [00:53:48] That.

Speaker 1 [00:53:49] Are of high quality. And also you are there to understand each other's love languages. For you, love is wanting to see a person grow and better themselves and fight battles with. With them. When a person is low and you set the. You can start off a relationship without love, but love will eventually develop, and caring for them pretty much equals love. And you know, the [Partner's Name] loves you because of his actions. He's always there for you. And your lowers, he helps. He helps you diffuse your thoughts and puts them at ease. And he also learn your local languages and acts on them. Some challenges is definitely the long distance, which pretty much is the main contributor to disagreements. And how your resolve is by communicating. Then you give that example of when you went to the beach. Of how you resolve it. Other ways that you maintain your relationship by face timing. I guess indirectly, being physically with each other through just like face on me. You said that the relationship is definitely good for you as he brought out the better version of you. Ambra I love. And you said, yeah, that the relationship did change you in a good way.

Speaker 2 [00:55:49] And.

Speaker 1 [00:55:59] And you think your relationship kind of changed because you're more open to like, their thoughts and feelings or discussing them? And you said.

Speaker 2 [00:56:13] The.

Speaker 1 [00:56:15] Yes or no for. And you were the same person before the relationship. Did you like some qualities? And for your partner, for [Partner's Name], you said you're not sure. And no, because of like. You change it to know because of personal life before dating. So you only know what he's told you. And you say you definitely feel safer on him mentally, physically.

Speaker 2 [00:56:47] And.

Speaker 1 [00:56:49] That he wouldn't do anything to harm you. And then look at my nose for the Likert scale. You said. Partners usually really listens to you. You said an 8.5. Because like 98% of the time he does listen, but sometimes he can't because he's busy. And then.

Speaker 2 [00:57:12] For.

Speaker 1 [00:57:13] Responsive to needs. You said 7.5. Because some needs or he is responsive to some needs, but can be responsive to all the to the long distance. And you say you're completely satisfied that you don't have pretty much anything to complain about. Um.

Speaker 2 [00:57:39] And.

Speaker 1 [00:57:46] And it suppresses your expectations. Yeah, that's pretty much the summary. Is there anything else you'd like to add? Um.

Speaker 2 [00:57:57] No.

Speaker 1 [00:57:59] Okay, great. So thank you so much. Now, before we end, I want to talk to you about how we handle the data. So as a research project, we want to be as ethically transparent as possible. And so I wanted to know which data sharing option you're most comfortable with. So option one is that the transcript portions can be shared, none of which can be identified to you. So the de-identified transcript can also be read by other researchers. Or option two if you were bolder and other options like the whole transcript can be shared. Obviously removing sensitive and overly identifying details. So it will be anonymized. But although in this option, there is a very, very minimal chance that someone who knows you well can like piece together the details in the transcript and narrowed down who among their colleagues they believe it is. Although again, no sensitive information will be shared. So of these two options, which are you most comfortable with?

Speaker 2 [00:59:10] I think the second option, you.

Speaker 1 [00:59:15] All right, so. Yeah. So thank you very much again for participating in a study. I would like to let you know that this is being done in the Philippines, Brazil, Netherlands, France and the US for this study to be successful. There's also one thing the we will ask you if that's okay for you. Okay. So can you recommend to close people in your life as a nominator? We want.

Speaker 2 [00:59:46] We sorry.

Speaker 1 [00:59:48] We asked them for like additional couples that might be interested in the study, but we'll be asking them for couples that you don't know or interact with. This way we can get us like a diverse of a network we can get. Is that okay with you?

Speaker 2 [01:00:04] Yeah.

Speaker 1 [01:00:06] All right. So those and you like based on the criteria that I sent over an email, is there any person that comes to mind as a real.

Speaker 2 [01:00:21] There is, but they are under [16-20].

Speaker 1 [01:00:26] Okay. Yeah. All right. Yes, I just. I just hope that people. All right. Yeah, So this is pretty much it. And thank you so much for everything. In terms of [Partner's Name].

Speaker 2 [01:00:45] Um.

Speaker 1 [01:00:46] Let me open the email again. I think you said also.

Speaker 2 [01:00:55] His signed his consent form.

Speaker 1 [01:00:59] Yeah. Do you happen to know his schedule? By any chance?

Speaker 2 [01:01:04] He's actually here right now. Okay. Yeah.

Speaker 1 [01:01:08] All right. Yeah. So if we could just hop in. I just thought the recording here. Sorry. Another recording?

Speaker 2 [01:01:14] [Name]. Um. Okay. So.

Speaker 1 [01:01:33] All right. I'm going to stop the recording.

Speaker 2 [01:01:37] Stop.
